A FINAL FIGHT IS WAGED IN CAUCUS

Democrats Opposed to Free Sugar Seek to Change Schedule

MUCH WORK IS BEING DONE

Several Senators Present Strong Opposition to the Administration Plans—Free Sugar Gets the Acid Test.

Washington, June 23.—Democrats opposed to free sugar, enlivened the Senatorial caucus late today beginning their final effort to change the schedule before the tariff bill reached the Senate for general debate.

Western and Louisiana Senators were primed to make a titanic fight against the provision approved and urged by President Wilson, which provides that sugar shall be free of duty in 1916. Senators Shafroth, of Colorado, and Walsh, of Montana, took up the contest when the schedule was reached suddenly late in the afternoon.

It had not been expected that the caucus would reach sugar before tomorrow, but the metal and wood schedules were rushed through without much discussion and before 5 o'clock the decks were cleared for the first and most determined party tariff schedule. This will be the acid test for free sugar. To the decision of the caucus the Democratic Senators will be pledged and the prospect is that only Senators Thornton and Ransdell, of Louisiana, will be released from the binding resolution that is to be adopted. There is a possibility of one other Senator asking for relief. Senator Ransdell, who is leading the fight on free sugar, hurried from the caucus room when it was apparent the sugar schedule would be reached, and sent a messenger for Senator Newlands, of Nevada. He wanted all the Democrats who do not favor the administration plan present. Senator Newlands soon arrived and immediately thereafter the first paragraph of the schedule was read.

Senator Shafroth, of Colorado, was the first speaker. Coming from a beet sugar State, he made a vigorous plea for elimination of the provision for free sugar in three years. He submitted many briefs and statistics to support the claim of the beet sugar manufacturers that free sugar would mean the crippling, if not the death of the industry.

Senator Walsh, of Montana, who will make a fight against free wool, is standing by the anti-free sugar Senators in the caucus fight. He followed Senator Shafroth and had not concluded when the caucus adjourned until tomorrow.

Until sugar was reached the caucus had been very harmonious. Not a change was made in the report of the majority members of the finance committee on the wooden manufacturtures schedule. The only material change in this from the Underwood bill was the free listing of cedar boards and other cabinet woods.

In the metal schedule there were four votes taken on accommittee amendments, and in each case the committee was sustained. Aluminum in the crude state was left at two cents a pound and in sheets and plates at 3 1-2 cents per pound. The committee's increase from 1-2 to 3-4 of a cent a pound on lead ore was sustained, as were its amendments increasing the duty on zinc ore from 10 to 12 per cent. ad valorem and zinc in pigs from 10 to 15 per cent. An effort to put hand saws and other common tools on the free list was not successful and a few small items in the schedule were referred for later determination.

Late tomorrow the majority of the Finance committee will complete work on its revision of the income tax and a statement giving the details of the changes will be given by Chairman Simmons.

The committee tonight received a petition from a delegation of New York diamond merchants urging reconsideration of its action in turning down proposed reductions in the diamond rates of the Underwood bill. After careful consideration of the claims that the Underwood rates would encourage and increase smuggling the committee decided not to change the rates. As left by committee uncut diamonds are made dutiable at 10 per cent. ad valorem, and cut diamonds at 20 per cent. The merchants want the present rates retained, cut diamonds at 10 per cent. and uncut diamonds free.

SEMINOLE INDIANS.

Florida Red Men Have Never Surrendered to Government.

Miami, Fla., June 23.—Despite the fact that the Seminole Indians never have surrendered to the United States government and never have acknowledged it and always have been considered the same as a warring tribe and uncivilized, the government today began plans here to treat them as wards of the United States when Deal L. A. Spencer, commissioner of the government to the Florida Indians, started for the camps of the tribes to arrange to assist them with their fishing and alligator hunting in the Everglades and the rivers. The dean says that the Seminoles will be assisted and an attempt to teach them sanitation, to send the young to school and to teach agriculture to the elders will be made. A loan may be made if found necessary.

EMBEZZLER PLEADS GUILTY.

Confesses to Appropriating $29,000 of State's Funds.

Jackson, Miss., June 23.—Lawrence Yerger, former secretary of the Mississippi penitentiary board of trustees, pleaded guilty today to embezzling $29,000 of State founds and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary.

STARS AND BARS TRIUMPHANT

American ... Wins Over English Crack ... Tennis Contest—The M... cely Fought

Library of Congress

Wimbledon, England, June 23.—The match between the American champion, Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, and the English crack, H. Roper Barrett, who were drawn together in the first round of the English lawn tennis championship here today, ended in a victory for the stars and stripes by three sets to two.

The match was fiercely fought throughout, and ran its whole length before the more youthful competitor was able to overcome his English rival. Excitement among the big gallery of spectators ran high, and McLoughlin was accorded a gratifying reception when his triumph was announced. In the first set of the McLoughlin-Barrett match, all the games went with the service until the ninth, when the American lost by a love game.

Barrett took the next game and the set.

Although McLoughlin's topping was good he was easily passed at the net. His fast service was a revelation to the onlookers, and when he settled down in the second set with his opponent leading 4-2, he quickly wiped off the deficiency and won by 8-6.

In the third set Barrett proved far better both at the back line and at the net. He took five games straight.

As the fourth set started the sun appeared. The American seemed to revel in its rays. He quickly established a lead of three games to one and lost only one other game in the set. His strong service gave him a tremendous advantage and his side lin edrives were magnificent.

In the fifth set McLoughlin got a lead of four games to two by smashing net play. With a great rally Barrett made it "four all" in the eighth game and took the ninth after an exciting exchange. The American then found himself again and easily won the tenth and eleventh games, and the match.

B. P. Schwengers, the Canadian champion, beat C. S. Grace three sets to two.

The survivors in the first round include Stanley N. Doust, captain of the Australian Davis Cup team, which was beaten in New York by the American team; R. F. Lesur, of the South African Davis Cup team; C. P. Dixon, lawn tennis champion of Middlesex county; A. W. Gore, the British champion, and H. Nickelson.

TWO ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

Man and Woman in Fayetteville Charged With Murder.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 23.—The city was visited by two fires last night and this morning, in one of which Rose Cromartie, colored, lost her life. Today Joe Garden and Bertha Wright were arrested on the charge of arson, with intent to commit murder. It is alleged that they set fire to the house of the woman.

The other fire destroyed the Fayetteville Woodenware Company's plant, estimated loss $25,000 with $13,000 insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

At 4 o'clock this morning the house occupied by the Cromartie woman, another negress and a child, was burned, and the unfortunate woman lost her life after rushing back into the blazing house to get some money. She was burned to a crisp.

The aftermath of last night's conflagrations proved to be as quick, and no less interesting than the several fires themselves, by Jake Walker swearing out a warrant today against the two named, charging them with "arson, with intent to murder."

According to the police, Aunt Rose Cromartie had on several occasions reported to the county and Federal officers that the accused man and woman were selling whiskey illegally, and in retaliation the accused are alleged to have threatened to "blow 'em up."

The case against the Wright woman and Walker is set for trial tomorrow morning before a magistrate, at 10 o'clock.

Coincident with the above, Deputy Sheriffs Monaghen and Patrick hied themselves immediately after the above arrests to Hope Mills, and discovered a still in a branch of that stream. John Garvin this morning was convicted upon circumstantial evidence of having operated an illicit whiskey still on the stream, and there was one lying in two or three feet of water, about 10 feet from the banks of the stream, of which more undoubtedly will be heard later.

Another Account.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 23.—An electrical storm passed over this city early this morning, lightning striking the plant of the Fayetteville Woodenware Company, destroying it, causing a loss of $26,000 and causing the death of Cora McClean, a negro girl, who died with fright.

Following the first fire a small tenement was destroyed by the flames and a negro woman, Rose Cromartie, was burned to death. She had escaped from the building, but went back for an insurance policy and was overcome. The last fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin.

M'REYNOLDS MUST MAKE FULL REPORT

The President Requests that Attorney General Explain

REMARKABLE DEVELOPEMENTS

Will Probe Basis of Resignation of U. S. Attorney General McNab, and His Sensational Charges

Washington, June 23.—Attorney General McReynolds will make a full report to President Wilson at the President's request, upon the causes that moved him to direct postponements of the Diggs-Caminetti white slave cases, and the trials of two directors of the Western Fuel Company, the basis of the resignation of United States Attorney John L. McNab, of San Francisco, and his sensational charges against the head of the Department of Justice.

One of the day's most remarkable developments in the unusual episode was the receipt by the President of a telegram from Clayton Herrington, special agent of the Department of Justice, in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at San Francisco, demanding the removal from office of Attorney General McReynolds. Officials tonight declared that the question of summary action in Herrington's case probably would be taken up by the attorney general.

The Department of Justice was in ignorance of the special agent's protest until its publication this afternoon. It was then called to the attention of the attorney general. Early in the day before Herrington's action became known at the department, officials were somewhat mystified, and later amused by the receipt of a telegram from another special agent applying for the vacancy at San Francisco.

While no action has yet been taken on the McNab resignation, White House officials let it be known that the President was looking for a successor. They stated that the character of the new district attorney would soon show whether there could be any manipulation of the case by the Department of Justice through political influences, as charged by District Attorney McNab.

Steps today preliminary to a final determination of the controversy were many. The President said his first intimation of the situation was gleaned from the newspapers, and declared he would wait for the attorney general's report before determining his course. The episode found an echo in the halls of Congress, where Representatives Kahn, Republican, of California, and Hinebaugh, Progressive, of Illinois, introduced in the House resolutions, one calling for official papers in the case, and the other for an investigation by the Judiciary committee. Representative Mann issued a statement declaring that President Wilson should supplant Immigration Commissioner Caminetti on the ground that he had "used both his political and official influence to prevent his son from being brought to a speedy trial."

Interest here in the incident centered largely around the Caminetti-Diggs case, postponement of which Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Labor, yesterday took responsibility.

Assistant Attorney general Harr tonight assumed full responsibility of the order to Attorney General McNab to postpone the trial of Robert Bruce, and Sidney V. Smith, directors of the Western Fuel Company, on charges of customs coal frauds.

This postponement mentioned in McNab's telegram of resignation to the President was ordered, declared Mr. Harr, to prevent a possible miscarriage of justice.

"The trial of the entire Western Fuel case was not ordered postponed," said Mr. Harr, "but only the trials of Bruce and Smith, who were indicted with three other directors of the company. Bruce and Smith were only directors, while the other three defendants were officials as well as directors. Attorney Pringle, for the company, asked that the indictments of Bruce and Smith be dismissed on the ground of no evidence to connect them with the alleged frauds. I carefully studied the evidence in the case submitted by United States Attorney McNab and reached the conclusion that Bruce and Smith, who seemed men of high character, probably were innocent as apparently they were unfamiliar with the operations of the company. In order to prevent a mis-carriage of justice, I recommended, and Attorney General McReynolds acquiesced, that it would be better to try first the three directors who were officials, because this trial undoubtedly would develop the extent of the connection of Bruce and Smith with the alleged frauds.

"It seemed unwise to run the risk of convicting two innocent men along with three men who might be guilty when the ends of justice would be fully satisfied by later trials if the government received evidence which it did not then possess of the guilt of Bruce and Smith."

IMPORTANT RULING.

Would Prevent Reserving Cases on Technicalities.

Montgomery, Ala., June 23.—The Alabama Supreme Court today, by a vote of four to three, ruled that on and after September 1st next, no case may be reversed by the Supreme Court nor any other court, on a mere technicality unless it is shown by the whole cause that the case of the appellant is or has been prejudiced thereby. It was also ruled that all "given" charges as well as all "refused" charges must be presented to the Supreme Court in every appeal.

BOY TRIES TO SHOOT UP COURT

Youth on Trial for Hold-up Fires Three Wild Shots—Cheap Literature Cause of Rash Act, Say Attorneys

Washington, June 23.—Judge, lawyers, policemen and spectators were sent scurrying to cover in the criminal court here late today when Ray M. Stewart, aged 18, fired three wild shots in an attempt to "shoot up" the court. At the first crack Justice Wendall P. Stafford disappeared beneath his desk and out in the court room there was a wild scramble for places of safety. Some sought refuge under tables or behind heavy chairs and others, frenzied by fear, leaped into windows and dropped to the ground some 15 or 20 feet below.

Justice Stafford had just refused to release Stewart on probation after conviction for attempted highway robbery. The boy whipped out a pistol and fired three shots, two of which narrowly missed Assistant United States Attorneys Samuel Hawken and Harvey Given and Policeman Moffett. He was in the attitude of turning toward the judge as if to shoot, when a witness sprang upon him and choked him into insensibility.

In the confusion that followed many thaught Justice Stafford had been struck by a bullet, but the judge emerged from his haven without a scratch.

Stewart had been convicted recently of holding up a negro in a Washington suburb last December. He had applied for probation as a first offender, and Judge Stafford had been hearing the testimony of witnesses for and against the applicant. Hawken, Given and Moffitt, who were conducting the prosecution, were seated near the boy, who had been at liberty on bail. The judge had barely uttered the last word in passing sentence when the prisoner began to shoot. The first shot was aimed in the direction of the prosecutors and just missed Hawken, who ducked under the table. The next shot went toward the jury box and passed dangerously near Detective Sergeant Grant's head. It struck a wall and rebounded, failing near Justice Stafford's bench. The third shot struck the ceiling.

As the youth wheeled and faced the bench, Edwin Blaine, a clerk in the Department of Agriculture, who had been a witness for the State, seized the boy by the throat and carried him to the floor.

By this time the court room had been nearly cleared of officials and spectators.

Stewart lay unconscious for several minutes after being disarmed. Later he was removed to the cell room beneath the court room.

Counsel for Stewart said the youth was unbalanced as the result of reading cheap literature. The hold-up for which the boy was about to be sentenced had many features of the dime novel variety.

Tonight the boy is in jail awaiting trial on the charge of shooting with intent to kill.

DEADLY BOARDMAN "CHUTE."

St. Pauls Negro Drowned Saturday When Boat Capsized.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Boardman, N. C., June 23.—"The Chute" at Boardman claimed another victim Saturday when Richard McMillan, colored, of St. Pauls, lost his life in Lumber river.

He and Philip Brown, colored, were returning from a fishing party when they lost control of their boat, about 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning, and the boat capsized. By hard struggling, Brown managed to gain the shore, but McMillan, an inexperienced swimmer, was drowned. All efforts to recover his body in time to restore him were without avail. It was found an hour later about 25 yards from where the negro last went down, by Mr. Claude Inman, a noted "dead header" for the Butters Lumber Co. All signs of life, of course, were gone. The body was taken to a boarding house and prepared for burial.

About one year ago, at the same spot, Dr. Bullard lost his life in the same manner. The place, called "the Chute", is very dangerous and all pleasure seekers should shun it.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Yeggs Attempt to Crack Uncle Sam's Till at Virginia Beach.

Norfolk, Va., June 23.—The postoffice at Virginia Beach was broken into early today and the postmaster's entire stock of stamps, amounting to several hundred dollars, was taken. An unsuccessful effort was made to blow the safe. No money was secured.

A number of small postoffice in various parts of Virginia have been robbed in the last few weeks.

PREPARING FOR THE COMING CAMPAIGN

Democratic Congressional Committee Meets and Elects Officers

DOREMUS CHOSEN CHAIRMAN

Agreement Entered to Co-operate With National Committee in Coming Mid-Presidenttial Race—Electors

Washington, June 23.—The Democratic Congressional committee tonight elected Representative Doremus, of Michigan, chairman, and agreed to co-operate with the Democratic National committee in the coming mid-Presidential campaign.

Mr. Doremus is understood to have been President Wilson's choice to head the party's Congressional campaign organization. He was elected by a vote of 30 to 24 after several months' of lively skirmishing for the post, with Representative Cline, of Indiana; Representatives Sabath, of Illinois; Lloyd, of Missouri, the retiring chairman, and Sharp, of Ohio, prominently mentioned as possibilities.

Mr. Lloyd announced some months ago that he would relinquish the chairmanship.

The new chairman is serving his second term in Congress. He was active in the Washington and Chicago headquarters of the Congressional committee in the last campaign. He said tonight it was too early to forecast any campaign programme.

Harmony prevailed throughout tonight's proceedings. The organization was completed and everything is now ready for planning the coming campaigns.

Besides the chairman, the other officers elected follow: Vice chairmen, Representative Cline, Indiana; Senator Chamberlain, Oregon; Senator Hollis, New Hampshire; Representative Goldfogle, New York; Representative Raker, California; secretary, Representative Pepper, Iowa; assistant secretary, Representative Murray, Massachusetts; sergeant-at-arms, Joseph J. Sinnott, Virginia, for 14 years holder of that position and now also sergeant-at-arms of the House.

Representative Flood, of Virginia, now treasurer, will be succeeded by a member to be appointed by Chairman Doremus. On the suggestion of Representative Covington, of Maryland, Chairman Doremus was directed to name five members of an executive committee including Mr. Doremus as chairman, to co operate with five members of the Democratic National committee as a joint committee in charge of the political campaigns.

Representative Palmer, of Pennsylvania, as a member of both the National and Congressional committees, said the former realized the "transcendent importance" of the Congressional campaign in 1914. He said there should be a systematic campaign of education with a view to the country's support of the Democratic President and Democratic campaigns throughout the country during the next four years. Senator Jones suggested that all were working for Democratic victory and argued for effective harmonious co-operation. Senators Stone, Gore and Smith, of Arizona, joined in this view.

The committee authorized the chairman to fill vacancies from States without Democratic representation in Congress to choose members from Alaska, Hawaii and the District of Columbia and to name all standing committees of the Congressional committee.

"FORGET AND FORGIVE"

Keynote of Fairbanks' Speech at Republican Banquet

Omaha, Neb., June 23.—"Forget and forgive," was the keynote of a speech delivered by former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks at a banquet tendered him by 300 Republican leaderes of Nebraska. The gathering was fairly representative of both wings of the party in this State.

Mr. Fairbanks, speaking of the future, said:

"Now and then we have heard it said that the Republican party has ended its career; that it is a party of the past rather than of the future. Such prophecy is not new, we have heard it proclaimed in other days.

"Circumstances which unfortunately led to party division a year ago no longer exists.

"Republicans, that is to say, those who believe in the political doctrine of the Republican party, are largely in the majority throughout the country. I have no doubt whatever that the logic events will bring them into co-operation again. This result cannot be accomplished by coercion, it must come naturally by the exercise of a spirit of a tolerance and patience; old scores should be forgotten; as President McKinley happily put it—'It does not do to keep books in politics.'"

STEAMER BEAVER SUBMERGED.

Nine Unaccounted for and Undoubtedly Drowned, Says Report.

Washington, June 23.—"Steamer Beaver—nine unaccounted for and undoubtedly drowned," was the report to the War Department tonight on the capsizing of the government survey steamer Beaver yesterday on the Mississippi river, New Madrid, Mo. The list of missing is C. S. Williamson, Jr., engineer; J. W. McConnell, surveyor; J. C. Lamb, pilot; A. D. Coston, steam engineer; Owen Logan, stoker; H. Estes, C. Brown, Philip Wray and H. S. Sherrill, laborers.

The report said that every effort was being made to recover the bodies and that a diver had been engaged to make an examination of the steamer. The boat was at the bottom under 18 feet of water.

ARTHUR PELKEY ACQUITTED

Pugilist Who Was Charged With Killing His Opponent, Luther McCarty, in the Prize Ring Not Guilty

Calgary, Alberta, June 23.—Arthur Pelkey, the pugilist, tonight was acquitted of a manslaughter charge which was placed against him as a result of the death of Luther McCarty, who died in the first round of a scheduled ten-round bout at the Burns' arena here May 24th, last.

It was charged by the government that McCarty died as the result of a blow administered by Pelkey. The jury was out less than an hour and a half before returning the verdict, although Chief Justice Harvey's charge was said to be unfavorable to the defendant.

In his charge to the jury Justice Harvey admitted that there was some doubt as whether or not the contest was illegal, but he said there was no doubt that death had been caused by a blow, and that the jury should consider only whether the defendant was guilty of causing the death of his opponent in an effort to win the prize placed upon the contest.

The contest which resulted in the manslaughter charge terminated when it had been in progress less than two minutes. The great crowd hardly had settled in their seats in anticipation of a greulling battle when McCarty fell to the floor after a quick exchange of blows. The crown contended it was during this exchange that the blow to the jaw was struck.

Orders were issued by the crown for the arrest of all those connected with the promotion of the fight. Pelkey, Tommy Burns, promoter of the contest; Referee Smith and William McCarney, McCarty's manager, were taken into custody, the latter two being held only as witnesses.

Startling developments followed in rapid succession after the principals of the affair had been released on bonds. The coroner's jury, which the crown charged was composed of friends of Burns, held an inquest and returned a verdict exonerating Pelkey and the others from all blame. The verdict was set aside by the crown.

Burns' arena was burned to the ground the night after the fatal contest and four persons narrowly escaped death. The origin of the fire has never been ascertained.

The trial, which was begun June 19th, lasted only four days. The trial of Tommy Burns will be held here in October.

MOTHER'S HORRIBLE DEAD

Negress at Chadbourn Kills Daughter After Torture—Is Insane

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chadbourn, June 23.—Murdered by her own mother is the fate of May Hilburn, a young colored woman of this place—murdered after torture of the most horrible kind, inflicted with all the cruelty that an iinsane person could devise.

The crime was discovered Sunday morning and must have occurred Friday night, when the girl was last seen. Sunday morning a lady of the town, who had become interested in the case, went to the home of Charles and Ella Hilburn, on Dr. Withers' place, near town, to see how the girl was faring. The woman had been treating her cruelly for several weeks, since the birth of a child. Arriving at the home the lady soon discovered the corpse of the girl, sitting upright on the floor in one of the rooms of the cabin, leaning slightly against a bedpost. The body was nude to the waist and bore the marks of blows administered by a thick stick. In addition to the many wounds, the unfortunate had been scalded. The torso was blistered, as was the face and head. Near the body was a tub of water, which is supposed to have been boiling when the murder was done. It is thought that the mother, who is crazy on religion, had beaten the girl into unconsciousness, and then poured the boiling water over her, completing her awful crime.

She and her husband, who is not believed to have had anything to do with the murder, were at once arrested and placed in jail. The coroner, Dr. Smith, of Bolton, was called, and immediately started an inquest yesterday.

The people of the community tenderly sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, who lost their infant Sunday afternoon, after a short illness. The little body was laid to rest in the family burying ground near Chadbourn today.

CROPS AROUND MAXTON.

Truck Poor but Corn and Cotton Fine. Enjoyable Social Event.

Maxton, N. C., June 23.—Weather conditions have been ideal the past several days for getting crops in shape and the farmers have been busy and happy. The amount of work that has been accomplished has been almost incalculable. Corn is fine and cotton is growing rapidly. All truck crops are poor and this means much in a community where hundreds of cars of melons and cantaloupes are shipped annually.

At the home of her father, J. S. McRae, on South Florence street, Miss Maud McRae entertained Friday night in honor of her house guests, Misses Berta McNeill, of Rowland; Elizabeth Fearington, of Winston-Salem; Lucy Worth Currie, of Fayetteville; Agnes McLean, of Lumberton, and Kate Blue, of Raeford.

With the hostess in the receiving line were these young ladies and the guests were ushered into the reception hall and from there they scattered to the spacious porches. Strips of paper were distributed, each containing the name of one of the guests and all were requested to write something of the person whose name appeared on his strip. Later these were read aloud, furnishing much amusement.

A visit was then made to the county fair, each guest by pantomime representing some article seen or purchased. Refreshments were served and as 12 o'clock approached the guests scattered to their homes.

WILSON DELIVERS CURRENCY MESSAGE

House and Senate in Joint Session Hear President's Address.

A BRIEF BUT EARNEST APPEAL

The President is Convinced That the Money Situation Must be Dealt With at the Present Session.

Washington, June 23.—A fixed determination to have currency legislation passed at this session of Congress was accepted by members of the House and Senate today as President Wilson's text for the currency massage, which he personally presented to Congress assembled in joint session in the House chamber.

Both Democrats and Republicans saw in the carefully worded appeal of the President an earnest conviction that the money situation must be dealt with before Congress adjourns, and preparations were made to begin committee work on the administration bill which will soon be introduced in the House by Representative Glass and in the Senate by Senator Owen.

The Galleries Crowded.

From the rostrum of the House chamber the President in carefully modulated tones that carried his words to every corner of the chamber, read the brief message he had prepared. Crowded galleries, cabinet officials, Senators and Representatives, Democrats and Republicans, sat in a tense silence as the President, with forceful earnestness told them:

"It is plainly clear that it is our duty to supply the new banking and currency system the country needs, and that it will immediately need it more than ever.

"We must act now, whatever the sacrifice to ourselves. I should be recreant to my deepest convictions of public obligations, did I not impress it upon you with solemn and urgent insistence."

The occasion was the President's second defiance of the custom of 100 years which sent Presidents' messages, long, dull documents, to be droned to weary Congressmen by a hoarse voiced clerk, and the affair moved smoothly. The Senate and House gathered in the House chamber where the galleries already had been crowded and the members chatted while they awaited the President's coming. The cabinet officers, except Secretary of State Bryan and Secretary of the Navy Daniels, who with their wives occupied gallery seats, had places on the floor of the House.

A joint committee led by Majority Leader Underwood and Senator Kern met the President and escorted him to the clerk's desk on the rostrum. Mr. Wilson apparently was less nervous than when he first faced the big assemblage of legislators to deliver his tariff address. As he spoke the gathering sat in attentive silence, marking carefully the points which the President's diction and intonation forced on their attention. When he had concluded there was a burst of applause and he bowed his way out after shaking hands with Vice President Marshall and Speaker Clark.

At both House and Senate ends of the Capitol and among both Democrats and Republicans tonight the conviction was deeply fixed that the President's solemn and earnest insistence on currency legislation would result in immediate activity in the legislative branch. Chairman Glass of the House Banking and Currency committee, and Chairman Owen, of the Senate committee, both conferred with the President after he delivered his address and both prepared for the early introduction of the administration currency bill which now is being revised in some minor feature of phraseology. The bill will go into both Houses this week.

The first authoritative statement on the President's message was critical and came from Republican Leader Mann, of the House. He said the message was a fine "example of classical English, but there is nothing more to it unless it be considered as a threat that patronage will be withheld until a banking and currency bill is passed."

Representative Mann criticised the bill as "stolen from the Aldrich monetary report with a few radical provisions taken from the Bryan platform mixed in."

On the Senate side many Republicans were of the opinion that the President's message was a flat declaration that Congress must act on the currency question. They believe it sets forth the President's position as being so positive on that point that he would call another extra session of Congress if necessary to dispose of the matter.

As soon as the bill is introduced both Senate and House banking and currency committees will get down to work, and early reports on both sides are expected. Senator Owen expects to put the bill in Thursday. Although a House caucus has been called for this week, it is probable that it will not take any definite action on the currency bill. The caucus was called to consider the question of a reform of the appropriation system by the initiation of some sort of a budget plan, and while the currency question may be discussed, action is likely to be deferred until a special caucus is called later.

Owen-Glass Bill

The President made it clear in informal talks with callers today that he regarded the Owen-Glass bill as primarily an instrument through which an emergency currency of $500,000,000 would be obtained. The provision to retire the two per cent bonds which now secure $712,000,000 of currency had been omitted from the bill, according to information at the White

PHILLIES WIN FROM RED SOX

Score Eight to Three—Reds Win from Pirates and Giants Split Double-header With Brooklyn—Pennant Race

With New York and Philadelphia engaged in a hot fight for first place and Brooklyn, again playing superb ball, sprinting rapidly toward the front and not far behind, the National League race has entered one of the most interesting phases of the season. Chicago still has a look-in and, according to Manager McGraw, is the club the Giants fear most.

Yesterday the Phillies maintained their lead with a score of 8 to 3 from Boston in a batfest at the expense of James, while the Giants split a double-header with Brooklyn, first game 4 to 2 in favor of Brooklyn and the Giants taking the second 5 to 1. The Reds lost to the Pirates 5 to 4 on Sunday, but yesterday they won an uphill game by the score of 7 to 6.

The first game was a pitchers' battle between Ragan and Fromme. In the second game the Brooklyns were helpless before Mathewson.

WERE STRANDED ON SHOALS.

Party of Wilmington Gentlemen Spent Night in Launch.

A party of Wilmington gentlemen went out fishing Sunday from Wrightsville Beach in a gasoline launch and got stranded late in the afternoon on the shoals near Queen's Inlet with the result that they were forced to spend the night away from home.

Much uneasiness was caused by their absence, and many feared that they had been carried out to sea. The members of the party were Messrs. A. O. Schuster, Louis Stein, H. G. Dill, Edward H. Holmes, Pierce M. Holmes, John Freeman, William F. Tomz, Dr. L. D. Creese, Mr. M. P. Creese, of Springfield, Mo., father of Dr. Creese, and Mr. Ingraham.

The fishing party left the beach early in the morning bound for Rich Inlet, about 15 miles north. They carried lunches with the expectation of spending the day. They had splendid luck fishing, catching 10 large drum ranging in size from 31 to 38 pounds. In fact, they become so much absorbed in fishing that they forgot about the tide's going down so that when they reached the shoals at Queen's Inlet they were unable to get across. Seeing that they were up against it they made the best of an awkward situation, and rested easy until the high tide came in which was not until early in the morning.

They state that they would really have enjoyed it had the not known that those at home were uneasy. At intervals during the night they made signals with a lantern with the hope that they might attract the attention of someone who would send a boat to their rescue. It was stated yesterday that several saw this light, but paid no attention to it as it was thought that the launch was disabled out in the ocean somewhere. Early yesterday morning Capt. Marine's boat, Atlanta, was chartered and sent out to look for the missing men. This boat reached them about 8 o'clock, just as the tide had reached a point where they could float across the shoals. The assistance of the Atlanta was not needed.

When they reached the pier at the Oceanic Hotel they found many of their friends and relatives there to greet them. With the exception of the fact that they were rather hungry all of the party were feeling fine. As they look back over the adventure they regard it with great good humor, but they do not desire to cause their loved ones at home such great anxiety again.

Will Sue for Damages

Preliminary taking of evidence before Eugene S. Martin, Esq., was begun in the Court House yesterday afternoon in the matter between W. B. Simmons, of Onslow county, and W. L. Groom, of Rocky Mount. Simmons is suing Groom for an alleged failure to execute a contract between the two men. Groom is said to have contracted to cut certain timber by a certain time and failed to do so. The amount in controversy is estimated to be between $20,000 and $25,000. The plaintiff is represented by Hon. John D. Bellamy, ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, L. Clayton Grant and W. J. Bellamy, Esqs., and the defendant by Iredell Meares, Esq.

Arrested for Assault

Oscar Johnson, colored, was arrested by the police last night on a warrant sworn out by Arthur Beaty, colored, who alleges that on last Friday night Johnson assaulted him with an axe handle. Johnson was placed in the lock-up and will be tried this morning in the Recorder's court.

PRESBYTERIAL MEETING

Twenty-fifth Annual Convention Is Pleasing Success

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 23.—In an address presenting the cause of Assembly's committees of Sunday School Extension, Young People's Work, Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, Mrs. L. W. Curtis aroused the women at the Friday morning session of the Presbyterial of Wilmington Presbytery. It was made clear that this work is the natural growth and development of the woman's work and that these causes needed the help of the women.

Mrs. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, presented the constitution of the Presbyterial in a very clear and attractive manner and the same was adopted by the meeting. The constitution of the Synod of North Carolina was also read and ratified.

A very helpful conference of presidents and leaders, in which the delegates took an active part, was conducted by Mrs. Wm. Sloan.

Invitations were extended by several societies for the next meeting of both the Day of Prayer and Presbyterial. The next meeting of the Day of Prayer will be held in Rose Hill and the 26th annual meeting of the Presbyterial meets in Burgaw.

The afternoon session was devoted to young people's work. Miss Mary Lou Powell conducted a song service in which the young people sang heartily.

The reports from the societies show a marked progress. Mrs. J. C. Stewart, who has been secretary of the Young People's Work for the past 11 years, submitted her report. She stated that in 1902 there were only three societies and that today there are 32 active societies. The contributions from the young people alone during the 11 years she has been secretary have been $4,000, and in that time four young men have gone out to the foreign field.

The Pocket Testament League was explained and presented to the delegates to take to their respctive societies. They were rqusted to start the Testament League in their home towns, the idea being to distribute one of the Gospels to as many people as possible and have them pledge themselves to read a portion every day. Mrs. Lee Brown, of Chadbourn, was elected secretary of the Union for the work of the Pocket Testament League and will have general supervision of this work in the various societies of the Presbyterial.

The nominating committee named the following in their report as officers for the ensuing year, who were duly elected: Mrs. Andrew J. Howell, president; Mrs. J. A. Brown, vice president; Mrs. L. D. Latta, recording secretary; Mrs. Edwin Taylor, secretary of Young People's Work; Miss Ada Bramble, secretary of Scholarship Loan Fund; Mrs. W. P. M. Currie, secretary of Foreign Missions; Miss Mary Sloan, secretary Assembly's Home Missions; Miss R. E. L. Brown, secretary of Local Home Missions, and Miss Margaret Pierce, secretary of Ministerial Relief and Christian Endeavor.

A very impressive consecration service was conducted by Mrs. A. D. McClure, after which the meeting closed with the song, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," by the convention standing, and the benediction.

A splendid and abundant spread was served in Mr. Powell's yard in the grove, near the church on both Thursday and Friday by the townsladies.

Mrs. E. S. Lewis invited the delegates and all those interested in the meeting in any way to her home Friday evening and about 200 enjoyd a fw hours very pleasantly. Refreshments were served.

A delegation of about 60 from other societies of the Presbyterial were visitors here during the meeting, and several from Clarkton and other places came merely to attend the meeting, but not as registered delegates.

The Presbyterial's 25th annual meeting was a success and was very much enjoyed by all those who attended.

Bishop Strange, of Wilmington, conducted services here last night at the school auditorium.

WITH THE MOVIES

While these are hot days, attendants at the Grand Theatre know it not. In fact, The Grand became known as the Theatre Cool, as well as the Theatre Beautiful. Scores of electric fans are constantly whirling, while free and perfect ventilation make the cozy spot decidedly healthful. Adding to this attractiveness is the very small admission figure—5 cents all the time. Today's big show will add to the joy of the hundreds of Grandites. In the main there will be four big pictures plus delightful incidental music. Selig has a big success on the bill today in "His Father's Deputy," with the well-known romantic actor, William Duncan, in the star part. There is also a great Vitagraph on today in "A Heart of the Forest." It is an Indian tale that's a thriller. There are two comedies on today that will cause yells of glee from the spectators. These are "Frappe Love," a novelty, and "The Coveted Prize," another unique hit.

The Bijou Bill Today

The popular Bijou, the home of cool breezes and of healthful ventilation, and its ever tiny price of 5 cents, made a fine start with a fine week's bill yesterday, playing to giant-sized audiences. Today another swell bill will be presented, consisting of four of the latest and most expensive films, besides plenty of new music. Today's film star will be Edison's "A Concerto for the Violin," which is a stage story of unusual novelty and power. Clever artists in the stellar roles are Marc MacDermott and Misses Mabel Trunnelle and Miriam Nesbitt. Two screamingly funny Biograph films are on in "The Masher Cop" and "What Is the Use of Repining?" A big educational film is also a feature today in "The City of Mexico.' It carries the onlookers directly to the heart of this muchly discussed country, and provides great information.

BLOOMER GIRLS COMING.

Will Play the A. C. L. Team at League Park Saturday Afternoon.

Arrangements were completed yesterday by the management of the Coast Line baseball team for a game at League Park Saturday afternoon with College Bloomer Girls who have been playing in North Carolina for several weeks. The fence and grandstand at League Park were removed a few weeks ago, but this does not matter, as the Bloomer Girls carry their own enclosure and seating facilities. The girls have been playing some rattling good games and have won a large number of games from North Carolina teams with which they contested.

It has been many years since a girls' baseball team has played in Wilmington and the game Saturday will doubtless attract one of the largest crowds ever seen at the ball park.

BROWNS AND WHITE SOX SPLIT

Divide Double-header Sunday and Yesterday—Athletics Indulge in Batfest with Beaneaters—The Games

The Athletics indulged in a batfest at the expense of the Bostons yesterday in the American League and the score went 13 to 4 in their favor and still further increasing their hold on the topmost ring of the pennant ladder. Chicago and St. Louis divided a double-header on each of two occasions Sunday and yesterday, while Cleveland and Detroit pulled off a similar stunt in their double on Sunday. The Washington-New York game was rained out yesterday.

While surf bathing at the Seashore Hotel Saturday afternoon, Mr. John J. Seibels, of Columbia, S. C., who, with his family, is spending several weeks at the resort, sprained his foot. The sprain is very painful and will inconvenience Mr. Seibels for several days.

Mr. Bryce Beard, of Salisbury, who was meal clerk at the Oceanic Hotel last season, has arrived to fill the same position again this year. He is a very popular young man and during his stay last year made many friends at the resort. Mr. Beard is a student at the University of North Carolina, having entered school there last Fall.

A delightful fishing party went from the Oceanic Hotel yesterday to Shell Island. They succeeded in catching a large number of the finny tribe. The members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. George Flournoy, of Atlanta; Miss Bloch, of Cincinnati; Mrs. J. J. Wilkes, of Charlotte, and Mr. Guy Stanley Meales and Mr. Davis, of Wilmington.

Col. Wade H. Harris, the well-known editor of The Charlotte Observer, is spending a few days at the Seashore Hotel. Before returning he expects to visit Southport and Fort Caswell. Wilmington and its nearby resorts has no better friend anywhere than Colonel Harris and this section is indebted to him for much favorable publicity it has received.

Sunday's Charlotte Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Miller are expected home today from Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Miller had the misfortune to suffer a sprained ankle the first time he went in the surf and has been on crutches ever since.——Mr. W. F. Dowd and daughters, Misses Ruth and Anna Belle Dowd, will leave Thursday for Wrightsville Beach to join Mrs. Dowd and youngest daughter, Elizabeth, and Master Sidney, who left for Wrightsville Friday.'

The following were among the week-end guests at the Oceanic Hotel: Guy Willis, Anniston, Ala.; Dr. W. H. Wakefield, Charlotte; T. Garnett Tabb, Richmond, Va.; Miss Marie Lewis, Dothan, Ala.; E. C. Anderson, Philadelphia; George W. Jefford, New York City; B. C. Summers, Atlanta; C. E. Allison and A. D. Wyatt, Bear Wallow, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion W. Estelle and infant of Savannah, Ga., have taken the Stevenson cottage, at the beach, for the Summer. A son of the late Col. J. H. Estelle, owner of the Savannah Morning News, one of the best newspapers in the South, Mr. Estelle is himself one of the present owners of the paper. Mr. and Mrs. Estelle will go to Tampa, Fla., to spend the Winter at the close of the season here.

Among those who spent the week-end at the Seashore Hotel were C. W. Muldron, Florence, S. C.; J. C. Robertson, Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sabiston, Charlotte; T. C. Chute, Chadbourn; K. C. Denny, Rooks; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bostick, Laurinburg; J. P. Harris, Charlotte; A. D. Johnston, Winterville; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McNair, Laurinburg; J. S. Worth, High Point; N. G. Coomer, Charleston; C. P. Scott, Maxton; Mrs. R. H. Bradford, Miss Lila Whitehead and John D. Durham, Burgaw; Frank K. Poe, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Poovey, and Mrs. J. A. Huckaba, McColl, S. Atlanta people will soon begin to arrive at the beach in large numbers, as the resort has long been popular with the people of the Georgia Capital. Some of Atlanta contingent that visit the resort each year are prominent socially as well as in a business way in their home city. The Atlanta Sunday American contained the names of several who will arrive in a short time. The American says: "The season at Wrightsville Beach is in full swing, and many Atlantans will be leaving soon for that place. Mrs. John Kiser and John Kiser, Jr., leave June 29th, as do Mrs. Harry Stearns and her children; Mrs. J. Frank Meador and her daughter, Charlotte. On the 4t of July, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McKenzie and Miss Sallie Cobb Johnson leave. Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan and Miss Erskin Jarnigan go this week, and will be guests of Mrs. Northrop in Wilmington, for the first part of their stay, later going to the Seashore Hotel."

An exhibition of fireworks will be given at Lumina next Monday night if the weather conditions are favorable. The fireworks will probably be displayed from some point near the sound back of Lumina, or possibly from a floating wharf stationed out in the sound. The exhibition can be seen from the new upper deck and from the bridge that has just been built over the tracks back of the pavilion. A board walk is being built from the pavilion to the sound and this walk will also be a fine place from which to view the display. A series of very fine fireworks displays were given at Lumina last season that attracted immense crowds to the beach. The exhibition to be given next Monday night, which consists of about 125 different pieces, will equal in every respect the exhibitions given last season. The Tidewater Power Company will have all their equipment in service that night to accommodate the large crowd that is expected to go down to the beach to witness the exhibition.

The following from The Atlanta Sunday American will be read with much interest by many friends of Miss Sallie Cobb Johnson at the beach and in Wilmington, where she is well known:

"Miss Sallie Cobb Johnson has returned from a four months' stay in New York, bringing with her a knowledge of the most intricate and graceful of the new dance steps, and the ability to execute them. Miss Johnson has been noted as one of the city's best dancers for several years, and since she acquired the tango and other variations of the modish dances, she has been the center of attention and admiration whenever she appears on the ball room floor. I heard the other day that Miss Johnson was to adopt a career, going in for teaching the art of graceful motion. She denies this, however, explaining to me that so many of her friends had asked for instructions in dancing the tango, she had threatened to hire a hall, and a piano and charge Chalif prices for her instructions. She has waived this intention, I understand, in order to spend July at Wrightsville Beach. Last year, Miss Johnson was informally voted the most popular girl at the beach. I suppose she will be even more so when she introduces the tango at Lumina. Miss Johnson leaves on July 1st with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall McKenzie, to spend a month at Wrightsville."

CONFERRING WITH RAILROADS

Corporation Commissioners Meeting With Traffic Managers at Old Point Comfort to Discuss Freight Rates—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 23.—Chairman Travis, Commissioners Lee and Pell and Secretary Maxwell, of the Corporation Commission have gone to Old Point Comfort for another conference with the freight traffic managers for the several railroad companies doing inter-State freight business in North Carolina in an effort to reach some equitable compromise agreement relative to the elimination of the much talked of freight rate discriminations against North Carolina shippers.

This is the second conference the members of the commission have held with the traffic managers at Old Point Comfort since the unsuccessful conferences of the railroad officials and the legislative commission on freight rates.

While the members of the Corporation Commission will make no statement as to the probability of any agreement being reached, it is certain that there will be definite and final announcement of the results of the conference as soon as the commissioners return to Raleigh from this Old Point Comfort conference.

Raleigh's experience with commission form of government, although very short, is proving quite remarkable in several respects and, withal, promises to prove highly successful. The legislative act for the application of commission form here was gotten through the Legislature and carried in the city election for its adoption by the old "good government" forces.

And then by one of those unaccountable freaks of public sentiment the majority of the triple commission chosen to administer the affairs of the city under the commission act, were men who had been opposed to the commission form in the inception of the movement and who were denounced and attacked most bitterly by the "good government" forces in the campaign. Especially notable is the case of Commissioner O. G. King, who has the department of public safety. Now the commission has taken a hold on the affairs of the city and is meeting and solving the problems of policy and administration with such firmness and dispatch that the worst enemies of the individual commissioners are admitting freely that they are surprised at the success the commission is attaining. And, while there were predictions of early recalls, the mere suggestion of undertaking such a thing at this time is taken as a huge joke.

Some of the big things that the commission has accomplished already are material improvement in the fire department, a great reform in the health and sanitation departments that is puting the city in cleaner and more healthful condition than she has ever been; improvement and extension of the police service with special officers at dangerously congested street crossings; renewed activity in street improvement, a vigorous movement for the collection of large amounts of uncollected back taxes along with other reforms in finances of the city; exacting interest on the part of bankers for city monies on deposit; the purchase and enlargement of the water plant and the purchase of a site for a new city market and the sale of the old Metropolitan Hall and market on Fayetteville street, at not less than $80,000.

The State authorities are especially anxious for every North Carolina Confederate veteran, who intends to go to the Gettysburg semi-centennial celebration July 1st-3rd, to have the proper identification and credentials papers before they start, the authorities at Gettysburg making it clear that none but those having these correct credentials will be under any circumstances admitted as veterans. Great numbers of veterans are already taking steps to provide themselves with the required credentials, but there are very many more that it is feared will make a great deal of trouble for themselves and for the reunion officers by failing to do this.

Col. J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State, is issuing an appeal to the county chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy for them to solicit private subscriptions to defray the expenses of indigent Confederate veterans in their respective counties to the great reunion. A number of the States have made legislative appropriations for this purpose, but the recent North Carolina Legislature did not feel able to and a bill carrying an appropriation died in committee. The indications are that a sufficient fund will be raised in this State to insure the presence on the Gettysburg battlefield of every veteran who is able and anxious to go, but who is unable to bear the expense personally.

The remains of Thomas Bragg Heartt were laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery Sunday morning, the funeral being conducted from the First Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock by Dr. W. McC. White, the pastor. Mr. Heartt was 42 years old. He served as stenographer at the State's prison until recently, and was a long while stenographer to Col. A. B. Andrews, first vice president of the Southern Railway. Bright's disease caused his death.

Judge Alex Stronach left Sunday afternoon for Washington to confer with the authorities there before he starts later in the week with his family for Samoa, where he has received through Secretary of the Navy Daniels the appointment to a government position, the duties of which are those of district judge, secretary of State and clerk to the Governor General of the island with a salary of $6,000. A. M. Noble, of Selma, is to go with Judge Stronach to Samoa and serve as his clerk.

Former Governor W. W. Kitchin has purchased the handsome residence of the late Capt. J. J. Thomas, for many years a prominent banker here, and his family will occupy it as soon as Mrs. Thomas can move into her new home in Cameron Park. The Thomas residence that is to be the home of Governor Kitchin's family is at the corner of McDowell and Jones streets. Mrs. Kitchin and children will come from Roxboro to occupy their new home.

William E. Brown, of this city, and Miss Maud Hobbs, of Burlington, are to be married tomorrow at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. R. Hobbs, in Burlington. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home in Salisbury where Mr. Brown has a position in connection with the Southern Railway shops.

Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham and the test farm committee of the State Board of Agriculture leave within the next day or two for official visitations to the State test farms in the western section of the State, notably the Iredell, Buncombe and the Transylvania farms. They go to make an investigation as to the progress of the experimental work on each of these farms. Members of the board who will make this trip are K. W. Barnes, Lucama; R. L. Woodard, Pamlico; C. C. Wright, Wilkesboro; William Bledsoe, Gale; A. A. Cannon, Horse Shoe, and R. W. Scott, New River. Commissioner Graham will stop at his farm in Lincoln county for a month's stay after this trip.

CELEBRATE 36TH ANNIVERSARY

Address by Grand Regent Charles A. Johnson, of Raleigh

The 36th anniversary of the founding of the order of Royal Arcanum was appropriately celebrated last night by Cornelius Harnett and Carolina Councils. The exercises which were of an informal nature were held in the hall of Cornelius Council, on North Third street. An ejoyable feature was the address of Grand Regent Charles A. Johnson, of Raleigh, who arrived Sunday to attend the celebration. He spoke on the ways in which to increase interest in the work of the order.

Other addresses made were by Grand Secretary H. E. Bonitz and Grand Chaplain S. Mendelsohn, of this city, who made talks along the same general lines of Mr. Johnson's address. These informal talks were heard with the greatest interest by those who attended.

Several applications for membership were received, and it is believed that the celebration last night will have the effect of increasing interest in the work of the Royal Arcanum here. Plans were discussed last night for helping the Supreme Regent in carrying out the purposes of the order.

At the close of the meeting all went to The Orton Confectionery, where ice cream was served. The whole affair was informal and without frills and furbelows.

In the State of North Carolina there are about 4,000 members of this fraternal order, and it is worthy of notice that 300 of these are in the city of Wilmington. In the United States there are 251,000 members which is a remarkably fine showing when it is remembered that the Royal Arcanum has only been founded for a period of 36 years. Its growth has never been spasmodic, but has been a gradual increase in numbers.

The Star has received from Messrs. Stone & Stone, of Shallotte, Brunswick county, the first cotton bloom reported to this office from the State. It was plucked on last Saturday and is from a field of 50 acres cultivated by the Messrs. Stone. They write, enclosing the bloom: "We have about 50 acres of cotton, 100 of corn, all looking fine today and but very little grass in any of it."

MELEAN

CLAIRVOYANT, TRANCE MEDIUM AND PSYCHIC PALMIST.

I have moved into my own private home at 106 North Fourth Street (second door North of Princess Street), where my parlors are so arranged that you meet no strangers. All matters treated in sacred confidence. Maid in attendance.

Positively no readings on Sunday.

STRANGE POWERS

I was born with a remarkable power—a power not meant to gratify the idle curious, but to direct, advise and help those who are in trouble and suspense concerning the every day affairs of life.

MY WORK SPEAKS FOR ITSELF

While I have the endorsements of hundreds of the most noted men and women of America, I deem them of little value, since I stand alone upon the merits of my work. Any person who can believe their own eyes and ears cannot help but know that my work is of the highest order of genuine clairvoyance.

If you have trouble or difficulties of any kind, come to me and have a quiet chat, confidentially. I will tell you what can be done. I assist you in all walks of life. Don't be despondent, worry or feel bad when you only have to call.

Now, as a business adviser, I stand pre-eminent. I will tell you more about your own business than you know yourself. If you are not doing well, and want to do better, call.

If, at the end of the year, you are no better off than when it started, there is a cause for that.

You don't want to be single. Happy marriage and a pleasant home is what you want. I arrange that for you speedily.

Have you domestic difficulties? Is your wife, husband or sweetheart untrue? Do others share the love that rightfully belongs to you? If so, don't hesitate. Call quick, before too late.

Are you seeking separation, divorce, or have you other legal troubles, or want to get advice on the subject? I am the person to consult.

If you speculate or invest, I can lead you to prosperity.

Have you bad luck or an evil influence over you? I remove that at once.

I advise you as to your future welfare, tell you what to do and what not to do. Many of my clients have gained fame and wealth through my guidance.

Satisfaction is positively guaranteed. No fee accepted in advance. If you are not satisfied, no fee is accepted. Is not that honest? Could anything be more fair? A pleased patron brings his friends. My motto is: I must satisfy you first.

REDUCED FEE FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY.

I give just as careful and complete a revelation of your business, love and domestic affairs for 50c as I do for my regular fee of $3 and $5. I am taking the reduced fee plan to introduce myself and my work more extensively to the people of this city, where I have established my permanent home.

Please remember that I can be consulted only in my own home, 106 North Fourth Street, just one block from City Hall.

New York politics consists mostly of mud.

In these days nothing is Caesar's if somebody else seizes it first.

A great many people don't know how to cook green corn after they buy it.

The worst thing about politics is the politicians who are not in it for their health.

What became of the old fashioned sewing circles that used to work overtime?

Did you ever know of a real intellectual person who ever took chances on an unloaded gun?

An optimist thinks it will all come out in the wash. A pessimist is afraid to wash for fear it will come out.

"What does your car cost you?" inquires the Columbia State. It depends on the results of our joy rides.

The difference between a man and a woman is that a man is never certain about the time he ought to put on a clean suit.

Something done today may make a man famous. The same stunt done a year hence would be so commonplace that it will be cut down to a few lines.

The Pennsylvania girl who was sent home by a policeman, because she did not have on enough clothes, was a typewriter. Evidently the policeman thought she was a visible typewriter.

It is said there are 2,500 profane expressions in the English language. That accounts for the fact that they slip out before metalsome men have time to think of such equivalents as "Gee Buck" or "For the love of Mike."

Republicans in congress have resisted tariff revision to the very last, but if hot weather keeps up at Washington it will prove more effective than speeches to bring about early action on the Underwood-Simmons bill.

Three hundred young women of the graduating class of the University of Illinois were told by President James that "marriage is better than a career." They will have to try it before they will be able to confirm the president's mannish idea about it.

In its account of a June wedding, a country newspaper in Missouri said: "The groom was perfectly self-possessed, as this makes the sixth time he was married." Like an old actor, he knew his part too well to have anything like stage fright.

Kansas people are worried because a great many men are injuring their health by drinking ginger ale as a protest against prohibition. The substitutes are worse than the genuine article, but the probability is that the man who put the ginger in ale put all the gin in ginger.

"Give me credit, and others may have the cash," declared Mr. J. J. Hill, the railroad magnate. We are among others who would rather have the cash, for the reason that we wouldn't need the credit. Who else prefers the cash? Don't all speak at once.

Very few people go into business for the purpose of furnishing competition. They often go out of it on account of competition. The average man will more readily subscribe stock in a business concern that has little or no competition. Men get cold feet on a proposition in which they know competition will be strong. The man with money to invest is always looking for a soft snap.

Many men declare that they are for rural progress, but they vote against improved highways. The first step toward rural progress is good schools. The next is good roads, without which good schools cannot be utilized to the best advantage for the children of a community. We never knew of a good school in a country where there are no good roads. We have never seen a good roads county that had poor schools.

THE STATE AND THE PORT.

The Star has often urged systematic efforts to promote the interests of the port of Wilmington, and now that the State is beginning to appreciate the possibilities of an ocean gateway in solving the transportation problem, now is a good time to organize a movement to promote the commerce of the port and secure the co-operation of all interests throughout the State. The suggestion of Messrs. Greenamyer and Maxwell that the business men of the State operate a steamship line between New York and Wilmington is receiving favorable consideration all over the State, and the proposition is particularly timely because of the fact that it is emphasizing the use to which the port can be put by the whole of North Carolina.

The newspapers everywhere are commenting approvingly upon the proposed co-operative steamship line and while that question is merely tentative, it is a good time for Wilmington to strike while the iron is hot—while attention has been aroused as it never has been before. The Charlotte Chronicle a few days ago suggested that it was up to Wilmington to take the initiative in whatever is to be done, and again that esteemed contemporary refers to the matter in this way:

"The suggestion made by Clerk A. J. Maxwell, of the State Corporation Commission at Wilmington that a million dollar steamship line be organized by the people of Wilmington and the other cities of the State is receiving very favorable comment throughout the State. The primary object of the proposed line is to reduce the freight rates on goods received from the North and goods shipped to the North by the cities and towns of the State. However, aside from this consideration there seems to be little doubt but that the project would prove a most excellent investment, returning the stockholders such dividends as they would receive from money in manufacturing or other enterprises. The people of Wilmington declare that they will work out the proposition if the business men of the State will back them. We have no doubt as to what the business men of the State will do. Shown that the plan is workable and given a sound and substantial proposition the business men of the State will not hesitate to supply a large amount of capital, especially since they are now paying a tribute of nearly $5,000,000 annually to the railroads."

Of course, the initiative should be taken by Wilmington. It would be anomalous for some interior city to take the lead while the business men of the port are mere lookers on in Vienna. That's where they would get the laugh on us. Whether the proposed steamship line is a feasible or practical one remains to be seen. We have previously referred to it as a "proposal", for it has not received such definite shape as to be termed a proposition. It is more or less tentative, and is only one among several things that the business men of North Carolina can do to utilize the Cape Fear ocean gateway to lower freight rates in the State—not only that, but to increase the commerce of the State, to develop manufacturing and commercial opportunities throughout the State, and in a general way to develop the resources of North Carolina, not only those right around Wilmington, but those all over the State.

The question of establishing and developing an independent steamship line is only one of the things to be considered. It cannot be considered without some organized movement, and in that Wilmington can take the initiative. Wilmington can take the initiative in considering the suggestion made by Messrs. Greenamyer and Maxwell. Wilmington ought to have a port association to do effective work for the port, and now is a good time to organize it. Long ago The Star urged organized and systematic work in the interest of the port for the promotion of commerce. There are more things that the business men of North Carolina can do to utilize the Cape Fear ocean gateway to lower freight rates in the States, besides considering the feasibility of an independent steamship line.

When the first pick was stuck in the Panama Canal, The Star urged an organization to study South American trade opportunities in relation to the port of Wilmington. It was not done, but so far as that is concerned, no other South Atlantic port has done it either. Our ports are still in the dark as to what they can do or just what can be expected of them when the Isthmian waterway is ready for operation. The proposition has been made for the government to appoint a business manager for the canal, so he could let our ports know what they can do. That proposition has been discussed seriously in at least one of our ports, just as if any man whom the government could select could know all about the hundreds of ports in the country. Apt as not the canal "business manager" would be a man who wouldn't know some of our ports are on the map. Certainly he could never know unless he would make a study of them. Obviously, that would be a task that no man could perform.

What is needed most is a business manager for our ports, or an organization which could tell the "canal manager" all about the port. It is for our ports to find out for themselves what their opportunities and possibilities are, and that will never be done so long as everybody's business is nobody's business. If we do not know what our ports are capable of doing, we can't expect anybody else to know. Neither will we know unless we study our port in some organized and systematic way, so statistics, information, etc., can be compiled, and the possibilities of the port be discussed from different angles.

What North Carolina's ocean gateway needs more than anything else is a big terminal company, to construct a coaling station, docks, piers, warehouses, etc., and to lease, own and operate steamships and vessels of all kinds, if need be. However, port facilities will attract all the steamships that will be needed to carry the commerce of the port. If we will furnish the water terminals and furnish cargoes, we can get all the ships necessary to carry them. Several steamship companies are looking for business if we will show them how to get it and tell them what the port can do, or possibly can do, if the effort were made.

As we have said before, Wilmington ought to use all this agitation in the State to make known the possibilities of this ocean gateway, if we know them. If we don't it is time to make a study of them. Not long ago we were talking with a steamship president who did not know that iron could be and had been exported through Wilmington. There are a whole lot of things that they do not know, but there are a whole lot of things that we could let them know if we would get on the job.

Nobody ever seems to think of showing the port to visitors. We show them the city and the sights. We ought to show them those port facilities where steamships and trains can stand alongside each other and exchange freights. That demonstrates ideal conditions for handling terminal freights to the most economical advantage. We ought to appreciate these advantages ourselves and make others appreciate them also. Seeing is believing, and if we show them they can't help but believe. We ought to get our eyes open ourselves so we can show those who are from Missouri.

Who is going to do it? Who showed the visiting merchants last week Wilmington's water and rail terminals where steamships and freight trains were backed up to each other?

WELCOME TO THE JEWELERS

The only way to deal with a jeweler is to take his word for it and pay him his price. We have always followed this policy when buying the innumerable diamonds in our large and costly collection, and the many auriferous trinkets with which our person is embellished. Select a jeweler with an open face, a smile of large karat and a clear eye, tell him what you want, take his word that it is what you want, and fork over the cash. Never "jew" him; do not rile him; for the jeweler, if he be of a mind to, can have you wearing a piece of jewelry worth thirty-three and a third cents and you'll never know the difference.

Now that the jewelers of the State have come to meet with us at Wrightsville Beach, we trust that they will take our word for it, without further inquiry, that they are welcome and that everything they see that they want is theirs. They have keys that fit the gate locks of the city and the beach, and they are invited to walk right in and help themselves, on our guarantee that everything is of standard quality and one hundred per cent fine.

Their organization in North Carolina includes in its membership a fine lot of citizens, trained to judge things by their merits, to weigh carefully all matters, and to withhold their judgment until the evidence is all in. In short, they are a very desirable class of citizens, and so the city and the beach extend to them a welcome as warm as the breezes are cool and as boundless as the ocean in which they will doubtless disport themselves after their interesting business sessions are finished.

What this country needs is corn pone made from old fashioned corn meal. Up in Iredell county where this is realized, thanks to the wise preachments of Judge Clark, of The Statesville Landmark, a modern flouring mill, operated by electricity, has installed mill stones that furnished meal to the forefathers, and will again turn out the glorious stuff that was served on Olympus and in North Carolina until an unthinking, fastidious generation sprang up that worshiped bleached flour and regarded the corn pone with scorn.

Lumberton expects to have a big time next Tuesday on the occasion of a rousing 4th of July celebration. The orator of the day will be Senator Overman, who will prove a splendid drawing card. This distinguished North Carolinan has a host of friends in eastern North Carolina and thousands of them will take advantage of the opportunity to hear him.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Corn grown around Fayetteville is selling in New York at $2 a crate, which is about a dollar a dozen ears. Nothing like making them pay for a good thing when they can get it.—Charlotte Observer.

This appears in the editorial columns of the Wilmington Star: "Wanted: Twenty thousand optimists who don't doubt or wait." A volume of meaning is conveyed in those few words.—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

It is not generally known that the last Legislature fixed the speed limit of automobiles in cities and towns at ten miles an hour in the business sections and fifteen in the residence sections. The law says the speed must at all times be "reasonable and proper" in connection with particular circumstances, and any incorporated towns or cities have the right to make the speed limit less than stipulated, but cannot allow it to be more. It is made the duty of all police officers, constables, etc., to enforce the law, and if strictly enforced it will injure no one who is riding for real pleasure or for business, but only those who are using the public highways without any regard to the life and pleasure and business of others.—Concord Tribune.

They have been having a terrible row in the new administration down at Wilmington. A majority of the Commissioners have endeavored to "run the hog over" Mayor P. Q. Moore and they have run up against a stump. The Mayor had appointed a special officer to prosecute investigations under his immediate directions. The Commissioner of Public Safety declared that since he was head of this department he would have nothing of it, etc., etc. At a meeting of the Commission an ordinance was introduced which in effect was a decided calldown for the Mayor. Mayor Moore in terms which could not be mistaken declared that he was first in command in every department and the Commissioner at the head of the department was really second in command and that he proposed to exercise his prerogatives and his duties. The ordinance was not passed.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Famous Dancer Gives Complexion Secrets

(Aileen Moore in Beauty's Mirror.)

I've learned the secret of Dolores' entrancing beauty—the wondrous charm that has dazzled the courts of Europe and captivated vast audiences everywhere. The famous dancer abhors rouges and cosmetics. Yet despite the strenuosity of her life, she retains the incomparable complexion best described as "indescribable." An intimate friend tells me the senorita regularly uses on her face what druggists know as mercolized wax. This is applied at night in the manner cold cream is used and washed off in the morning. It absorbs the dead particles of skin which daily appear, and a fair, soft, fresh, girlish complexion is always in evidence.

Dolores' skin is not marred by a single wrinkle, not even the finest line. She wards these off by daily bathing the face in a solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. As your drugstores keep these ingredients, as well as mercolized wax (one ounce of the wax is sufficient), no doubt your readers will welcome this information.

BIG DELEGATION COMING

Mission of Great Order of Shriners That of Good Cheer With Members Scattered All Over the World

The following from Sunday's Charlotte Observer relative to the semi-annual pilgrimage of the Illustrious Nobles of Oasis Temple, which will be held at Wrightsville Beach Thursday and Friday, with Oceanic Hotel as headquarters, will be read with interest here:

"Es Selamu Aleikum!

"Whatever that is.

"The writer of this article doesn't know himself but he has a hunch that it is all right. It pertains to a grand jollification to be held on Friday of this week on 'the brink of the briny' down at Wrightsville Beach by Oasis Temple, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, when, it has been declared by the Illustrious Potentate of the Temple, O. W. Spencer, of Salisbury, the Faithful dwelling in peace and plenty all over the fair State of North Carolina, in large numbers, with happy smiling faces and hearts brave and warm, will enter the portals of Lumina pavilion and witness the ceremonial session of the Temple.

"If, by any chance there should happen to be any person anywhere who doesn't know the real 'dope' about the Shriners perhaps it will be well to pause, as it were, for a little word of explanation. The mission of the Shrine is good cheer. Instituted some 40-odd years ago in the metropolis of the Republic, the Shrine's special mission is to inculcate good cheer and good fellowship everywhere. Its philosophy has penetrated to the uttermost parts of civilized North America. About 175,000 good and true men are under the protecting dome of the spacious Imperial Temple. There is a temple here, a temple there; an oasis here, an oasis there, steadily pushing back the envious sands of the encroaching desert. An oasis, a bright cheerful spot in the desert, a place for rest and refreshment; a haven of green redolent with vegetation, flowers and perfume, of singing birds; of soft and restful music, of cheerful contented souls, where rational amusements and flashes of merriment and wit and grave and playful humor in plenty abound, producing forgetfulness for the moment of care and sorrow.

"Shriners invoke consistently the philosophy of good cheer, good fellowship, and endeavor to communicate these attributes to others, believing that 'Happiness is a perfume that you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.'

"There is not one Temple of Shriners in North Carolina, the headquarters of which are located in Charlotte. Here is also the home of the Arab Patrol. Its officers are Charlotte men. J. O. Walker is captain; W. W. Graham, 1st lieutenant, and E. B. Graham, 2nd lieutenant. One of the ceremonial sessions of the year is held in Charlotte, at other times pilgrimages are made to other points in the State. This week's event at Wilmington is to be one of the biggest events of the kind in the history of the Temple. Applications for the mysteries of the Shrine are pouring into the office of Recorder Thomas Griffith by every mail. From the best estimate obtainable at this time about a hundred candidates are preparing to present themselves for 'torture.'

"A special train of Pullmans and dining car has been arranged for with the Seaboard. This train will leave the Seaboard station in Charlotte Thursday morning at 7 o'clock, breakfast will be served on the train and it will arrive in Wilmington at noon. On this train will go the handsomely-uniformed Arab Patrol which will march up the streets of Wilmington to the terminal of the beach line cars, just by way of signifying to the Shriners and others in Wilmington that 'the big noise' is there. The Charlotte contingent of candidates or 'fresh meat'—or at least those of them who are wise—will also be passengers on this train.

"At 2 o'clock Thursday the candidates will begin to register at the Oceanic Hotel and do other things, lots of other things. Following the registration of the candidates there will be a business meeting of the Temple in the convention hall of the Oceanic Hotel. The ladies in the party will be given an automobile ride over Wilmington and its suburbs during the afternoon and a luncheon at the Elks' Club. At 7 o'clock the Shriners' parade will be given from the Oceanic Hotel to Lumina pavilion. At 8 o'clock the Arab Patrol will give an exhibition drill in Lumina pavilion. At 8:30 the Shriners ball will be given.

"Friday morning at 9:30 the candidates are instructed in various and numerous ways. At 11:30 the ceremonial session begins in Lumina pavilion—then begins the real pilgrimage across the hot sands of the desert where the candidates or 'fresh meat' are inducted into the various mysteries of the order and where no harm comes to them—if the rope doesn't break.

"At 5 o'clock in the afternoon an entertainment is given for the ladies and at 8:30 the ceremonies end with the banquet of the Mystic Oasis.

"Mr. J. E. McIlwaine has charge of the arrangements and reservations for the train and hotel accommodations for the guests of the party from Charlotte. His reservations close today. Mr. McIlwaine stated last night that the applications for reservations had been coming in rapidly and several hundred had already spoken for places."

ATTENDED OFFICERS' SCHOOL.

W. L. I. Boys Return From Week's Stay at Fort Moultrie.

Six members of the W. L. I., Coast Artillery Corps, North Carolina National Guard, returned Sunday from Fort Moultrie, near Charleston, S. C., where they spent the past week in attendance upon the officers' school for the Coast Artillery Corps for the States of North Carolina, Georgia and Texas. In the party from Wilmington were Lieutenants Paul L. Cantwell and J. B. Lynch, Privates J. L. Duffy, Geo. C. Jackson, Jr., Jewell Merriman and Bob Lewis. There were about 40 men from the North Carolina National Guard; 20 from Georgia, and two officers from the Texas Guard. The school began Monday of last week and continued for six days, during which time the reserves were put through a course of coast artillery defense. The annual encampment of the Coast Artillery Corps of the North Carolina National Guard will be held at Fort Caswell beginning August 4th. Those who attended the school at Fort Moultrie last week will have the advantage of this practice over the other members.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Usual Monday Docket Greeted His Honor Yesterday—Judgment Suspended in Justice Case. Woman Sent to Farm.

The Recorder had the usual large number of Monday defendants before him yesterday morning, the list ranging from drunkenness to selling "blind tiger" whiskey and larceny. The Recorder announced that he would suspend judgment upon payment of the costs in the case against L. A. Justice, a special officer in the employ of the city, who was found Saturday to be technically guilty of an infraction of the prohibition law in that he delivered to several friends in this city last December some whiskey which he had bought for them in Norfolk, the courts having held that "place of delivery is place of sale."

The warrant against Justice was sworn out in Magistrate Harriss' court last week by Ben J. Cottle, a druggist at Eighth and Castle streets, after Cottle had been arrested by the police for selling intoxicants as the result of the activities of Justice as a special officer. Justice did not deny that on a trip to Norfolk last December he brought back with him several quarts of whiskey for three of his friends and associates in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line. While he was not engaged in the business of selling whiskey for gain the courts have held that a person who buys whiskey for another is just as guilty of violating the law as the person who made the sale.

Carolina Underwood, colored, was found guilty of selling a half pint of whiskey to May Clemmons, colored, and was sentenced to six months on the county farm. She gave notice of an appeal to Superior Court and in default of $200 bond went to jail.

Engram Flynn, colored, was fined $10 and costs for attempting to use a razor on W. V. Fennell, Saturday, and Jessie Rogers, colored, paid $5 and costs for disorderly conduct. Lula Stevens and Lou Bell Olden, both colored, were each fined $5 and costs for having engaged in a personal difficulty in which a spittoon was the principal weapon used. Mary Clemmons, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

For taking from the cash box the sum of $105 Saturday night, Rufus Harrison, a negro who had been employed by Mr. J. G. Savage, who runs a cafe at No. 5 Princess street, was arrested Sunday morning, and yesterday bound over by the Recorder to the next term of Superior Court. His bond was fixed at $200, which he was unable to give and was placed in jail.

Mr. Savage did not miss the money until Sunday morning when he came down to open up his place of business. When he opened his cash box, which during the night had been in the safe, for the purpose of getting money to put in the cash register for making change, he found that all of the bills had been taken out with the exception of $31. Upon investigation he found a small hole in the bottom of the box through which the bills had been pulled out.

Before closing Saturday night he had counted out the money from the cash register and had placed it in the box. The box was then locked and placed near the safe and later put in the safe. He put the matter in the hands of Chief of Police Williams, who had a John Doe warrant issued. Suspicion pointed to Harrison, whom Mr. Savage had decided he did not need any longer.

Officers Jones and George went to the home of Harrison, who lives on Brunswick street, between Fifth and Sixth. They found Harrison at home and searched him, finding 60 cents in his pockets. They then told him that he might as well tell them where the other money was, as they knew that he had taken it. Harrison told them he had only gotten $15, but later said that he had gotten $60. They then searched his grip and found $105 in bills.

They then arrested him on the John Doe warrant and placed him in jail. The money was returned to Mr. Savage by order of court yesterday.

Gus Williams, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, was discharged. Officer Leon George testified that he saw Williams pass a bottle over to another negro for which he received some money. When Mr. George appeared on the scene this negro ran, and he was unable to capture him. He did get Williams, however, and two quarts of whiskey. He was not able to swear that the bottle passed over to the other negro was whiskey, and it was on this ground that the case was dismissed.

The case against H. Stein, charged with assaulting his wife, was dismissed, the prosecution being taxed with the costs.

WOODMEN UNVEIL MONUMENT.

Honor Memory of Bertram Adkins—Address by R. W. Davis, Esq.

Members of Live Oak Camp, No. 6, Woodmen of the World, accompanied by a number of other Woodmen of the city, went to Southport Sunday for the purpose of unveiling the monument, recently erected to the memory of the late Bertram Adkins, of Southport, a member of the Live Oak Camp, who lost his life a few months ago in a motor boat accident. The exercises took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The address was made by R. W. Davis, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Southport, who spoke of the great work that the order is doing. He declared that the man whom they were honoring was a most exemplary member of the order and ever kept its principles sacred. Rev. G. B. Webster, of Southport, acted as chaplain.

A pleasing and enjoyable feature of the exercises was the singing of the Wilmington quartette composed of Messrs. Albert Dosher Wilbur Dosher, W. A. McGirt and W. B. Muse. At the conclusion of the unveiling the Wilmington Woodmen returned to Wilmington on the afternoon boat.

—Yesterday morning Mr. Henry Hewlett and his son, Mr. Clarence Hewlett, were placed under bonds of $200 each by Justice Harriss to keep the peace with Mr. J. O. Brock, the complainant, who alleged that he feared bodily injury from the defendants. The matter is to come up for hearing Wednesday.

It is true that women more frequently suffer from kidney trouble than men. It is also true they suffer more intensely, owing to their more sensitive organism. Katherine L. Norton, New Bedford, Mass., says: "I had a terrible pain across my back, with a burning and scalding feeling. I took Foley Kidney Pills as advised, with results certain and sure. The pain and burning feeling left me, I felt toned up and invigorated. I am glad to recommend Foley Kidney Pills." They are tonic in action, quick in results.—Robt. R. Bellamy. (advertisement.)

SOUTH CAROLINA FIREMEN

Invited to Attend Inter-State Tournament Here in August—Chief Schnibben at Work on Plans for Big Event.

Telegrams signed by the Mayor of Wilmington, the Mayor of Wrightsville Beach and the chief of the Wilmington Fire Department, were sent yesterday to the president of the South Carolina Firemen's Association, now in session at Abbeville, S. C., and to Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, of Fayetteville, president of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association, who is attending the tournament, extending through them a most cordial invitation to the firemen of the Palmetto State to join the North Carolina firemen for the Inter-State Tournament to be held in Wilmington in August.

Chief Chas. Schnibben, of the Wilmington department, had intended to go to Abbeville and extend the invitation in person, but he found that he could not well get away, especially as quite all of his surplus time just now is required in making arrangements for the meeting of the firemen in August. The following telegram was sent to the president of the South Carolina association:

"Louis Behrens, President S. C. Firemen's Association, Abbeville, S. C.

"To the Officers and Members of the South Carolina State Firemen's Association:

"In behalf of the citizens of Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach and the Wilmington Fire Department, we extend to your membership, a most cordial invitation to join in with your North Carolina brethren, and attend the Inter-State Tournament, to be held in Wilmington on August 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 1913.

"P. Q. MOORE,
Mayor City of Wilmington.
"THOS. H. WRIGHT,
Mayor Wrightsville Beach.
"CHAS SCHNIBBEN,
Chief Wilmington Fire Department.

The following telegram was sent to Capt. McNeill, who is attending the tournament:

"Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, President N. C. S. Firemen's Association, Abbeville, S. C.

"Will you kindly extend in behalf of the citizens of Wilmington, of Wrightsville Beach and the Wilmington Fire Department, a most cordial invitation to meet with their North Carolina brethren, and attend the Inter-State Tournament that will be held in Wilmington on August 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th?

"The latch-string hangs on the outside, come and enjoy yourself."

The telegram to Capt. McNeill was signed by the same persons who signed the telegram to the president of the South Carolina association.

Invitations reading as follows have been sent to every fire department in North and South Carolina and to a number of prominent persons in North Carolina outside of the fire department:

You are cordially invited to attend and participate in the entertainments attending the Twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the North Carolina State Firemen's Ass'n under the auspices of the Firemen and Citizens of Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach
August 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th, nineteen hundred and thirteen

The invitation is signed by Mayor Moore, Chief Schnibben and Mayor Wright, of Wrightsville Beach.

Chief Schnibben is expecting a large attendance from all the departments in the State. Mr. Tesh, of the Salem department, was here yesterday and made arrangements for hotel accommodations for the hand reel company, of Salem, 10 men, and also for the "Rough and Ready" company of Winston. The latter company will come in a body, but will not bring any apparatus. A representative of the Newbern department was also here yesterday and arranged for accommodations for four Newbern companies. Chief Schnibben has received letters from Morehead City, Washington and other cities asking for information and stating that their departments would be well represented.

Tomorrow morning Chief Schnibben will appear before the City Council and ask permission to use Fifth street, between Princess and Red Cross, for the races to be run in the tournament. The street is wide and has recently been improved and is considered by Chief Schnibben the best thoroughfare in the city for the races.

On the opening day of the convention, Tuesday, the annual meeting will be held. On Wednesday it is planned to have the parade and some of the races and if Chief Schnibben's present plans prevail Thursday will be given over entirely to an outing down the Cape Fear on the steamer Wilmington touching at Fort Caswell. Then the inter-State races would be held on Friday. The details of the programme are yet to be worked out, but Chief Schnibben will have some further announcement along this line the latter part of the week.

NEW JURY LIST COMPLETE

County Commissioners Draw First Jury from "Purged" Box—Waive Title to Incinerator Site—Automobile Values

The County Commissioners in session yesterday received the new jury list from its committee, drew the jury for the special term July 14th, reconsidered its action in regard to title to one-fifth interest in the site of the incinerator, waiving the title; empowered the auditor to employ an appraiser for automobiles, and transacted various other business.

Commissioner McGirt reported that the jury list had been completed—a brand new one, containing between 1,800 and 2,000 names of citizens qualified for jury duty; the new names were duly placed in the jury box, which now stands "purged"—free from all useless names. At the end of the session the Commissioners drew the jury for the special term which is to begin July 14th, Judge George Rountree presiding. Only criminal cases will be tried.

The incinerator question came up again for the millionth time, or thereabouts, and board re-considered its resolution of last meeting to pay its $2,000 on the initial first payment to the company, only on receipt of a deed from the city conveying to the county one-fifth interest in the site; and then adopted a resolution concurring with Council in dedicating the incinerator to the Board of Health, so long as it shall be used by the board as an incinerator, the county paying one-fifth of the cost of the building, and a motion was further made and carried to have the structure insured in the name of the county and city, Chairman Willard to attend to this, in conjunction with Council. The county's one-fifth part of the cost of the building will therefore be paid as the payments fall due, and the matter of the title in the site dropped.

Auditor Orrell reported that he had located 236 automobiles, that they averaged a listed value of $440 each, that they ranged in listed value from $25 to $2,000, that the 236 had a combined listed value of $103,925. The list was looked over by Commissioners, and the board conceived the idea of employing a capable appraiser to assist the auditor in locating machines and in appraising their value, which in some cases cited, was absurdly low as fixed by the owners themselves. It was stated that there are from 325 to 350 machines in the county. Auditor Orrell will select an appraiser and they will inspect all machines, raising the value to what they think is right, the owners having the right of appeal to the board if they disagree with the appraiser.

Commissioner McGirt read a letter from Mr. G. C. McIntire, who stated that the speed law relating to Winter Park, Delgado and other sections of the highway, is being violated openly and without indictment on the part of the authorities. He stated that he had seen machines speeding through Winter Park, with their numbers purposely obscured or wholly lacking; but had taken down the following numbers of cars, which in his opinion were speeding more than 12 miles an hour: 1536, 2720, 6125, 4919, 3410, 7172, 6208, 5387, 3985, 7069, 6085. He asked that action be taken. Commissioner McGirt pointed out that the county had bought a motorcycle for $250 for just this purpose. He said that he thought the people, paying their taxes, should have protection. He stated that Mr. McIntire had sent the same letter yesterday to the sheriff. It was stated that there were two ways of proceeding in this case, either for Mr. McIntire to swear out the warrants himself, or for the sheriff to take the information furnished, swear out the warrants on information and belief, and summon Mr. McIntire as a witness.

Commissioner Moore, chairman of the bridge committee, reported the Northeast river bridge finished and ready for the public Thursday of this week, but noted that on account of the soft, new approaches, not quite finished on either side, it would be better for heavy-loaded vehicles to wait a while before they tried to cross. He read a letter from Engineer A. D. O'Brien, stating that the structure had been examined and appeared to be in good operation and ready for traffic. The engineer transmitted a bill for his services, amounting to $500. He stated that the bridge had cost $42,913.47, that New Hanover's part of it was 65 3-4 per cent, and Pender county's part 34 1-4 per cent, or $28,608, and $14,305. Of the total, the two counties have paid $22,814.30, leaving a balance due of $20,099.

Commissioner Moore said that it was a fine bridge, somewhere about 500 feet long, the draw section being about 200 feet long, worked with a lever by one man, moving in a circle from the center. He stated that he had discussed tending the bridge with a man living near, who said he could not give his time to it for less than $30 a month. Also four lanterns must be provided for night work, as signals to vehicles, and boats as well. The question of hiring a bridge tender was left with Mr. Moore, who will make some temporary arrangement.

When the approaches are all finished, said Commissioner Moore, there is going to be a big celebration by people of both counties. "Have a barbecue," suggested one. "Fish fry," declared Commissioner Yopp, who is the Izaak Walton of the board. Another declared that Commissioner Moore should make an address.

Commissioner McGirt stated that Messrs. J. W. Brooks, E. L. Mathews and others wanted to build a 12-foot rock road on 18th street between Market street and Perry avenue, and would do so if the county would furnish the rock, they to haul the rock, do the grading and put down the road. After discussion, their request was agreed to. The value of the rock will be $1 a ton, and the road will be one block in length.

A communication from the sheriff reading, "To the Board of County Commissioners—Your Majesties"; provoked laughter, and Chairman Willard straightened up and assumed a truly regal port and bearing when he read it, rubbed his eyes, and re-read it. The communication was to the effect that the prohibition law is being violated at Wrightsville Beach and on the Sound, and that it could be broken up and would be, but that the sheriff would be greatly assisted if the board would allow him $75 a month to employ detectives, men not known to the violators of the law. The board was agreeable, and directed that Chairman Willard, who has $200 left on hand from an appropriation for this same purpose some time ago, should confer with the sheriff and spend $150 during July and August, or whatever amount up to the $200 he thought needed; and if more were needed, the board could appropriate more, not only for enforcement of the liquor law, but all laws, not only at the beach and sound, but throughout the county, wherever a violation appears.

Chairman Willard reported that he was convinced Mr. L. E. Thomas had paid Recorder's court fines and costs in a case two or more years ago, for which costs the authorities were holding Joe Foxworth, colored; and he had ordered Foxworth's release. Mr. W. B. Thorpe, coal dealer, appeared and stated that in raising the license tax on retail coal dealers from $20 to $100 a year, the Legislature had placed a heavy burden on the dealers, and if the county could see its way clear to lighten the county tax, he and others would appreciate it. He said the tax was almost prohibitive. Chairman Willard said they had gone according to the State figures in fixing license taxes, and if they reduced them in one instance, all would demand reduction. Mr. Thorpe said he realized that, and he was very nice about it, agreeing with the Commissioners.

Chairman Willard reported that Engineer Becton would go over the proposed Villa View road today, and make a survey. A statement from the school board to the effect that the general funds owed the schools funds, $2,614, was received, and will be paid. Tax of $2.60 was ordered refunded to Joe Peebles.

Chairman Willard was made a delegate to the meeting of the State Association of County Commissioners at Statesville in August, expenses to be paid, according to law, by the county.

The Clerk of Superior Court reported that he had turned over to the auditor $25.50 in fees since his last report. Mr. W. H. Shearin's bill of $741, for food, clothing, medicines and utensils, furnished the camp since February up to the time he ceased to furnish supplies, having been approved by Clerk Williams, was ordered paid.

Present yesterday were Chairman Willard, Commissioners Yopp, Kerr, McGirt and Moore, Auditor Orrell and County Attorney Marsden Bellamy and Clerk W. A. Williams.

The board adjourned to meet at 3:30 P. M. Monday the 30th.

AUTO ACCIDENT SUNDAY

Machine of Mr. C. W. Lassiter Collides With Another

While returning from the Sound with a party of friends Sunday night an automobile which Mr. C. W. Lassiter was driving collided sharply with another belonging to the Burnett livery service and driven by Chauffeur Emmet Williams, both autos being more or less damaged but no one seriously hurt. The accident occurred at the intersection of the Castle street road with the Wrightsville turnpike in Delgado. Mr. Lassiter, bound for the city, started to turn into the Castle street road, while the Burnett machine going out the turnpike with a party, was proceeding straight ahead. The axles on the right side of both machines—E. M. F.—were bent, the windshield of Mr. Lassiter's machine was broken and some damage was done to the chassis and driving shaft. Mr. J. L. Memory was summoned and after making temporary repairs, the Lassiter machine was towed to his Market street garage by Hewlett Brothers.

A dispute arose between Mr. J. Quinby, an occupant of the car driven by Mr. Williams, and Mr. Peyton McDonald, an eye-witness to the collision, as to whether either or both horns on the cars were "tooted," and they engaged in a personal difficulty, it is said. They are to be given a hearing today in Justice Harriss' court. J. C. Jackson, of Delgado, will also be tried for participating in the affair.

TWO NEGROES ARRESTED HERE

Willis Pickett and Ed. Brown Said to Have Shot Another Negro

Because it is alleged that they shot another negro Saturday afternoon, two Pender county negroes, William Pickett and Ed. Brown, were arrested Sunday afternoon at Scott's Hill at the request of the Pender county authorities. They were placed in jail here to await the coming of some one to take them back to Pender where they will be tried. It is likely that officers will come today for them.

It is stated that these two negroes shot another negro at Topsail Sound Saturday, but so far it has not been possible to locate him. It seems that he ran in one direction while Pickett and Brown ran the other way.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. LeClear's Health—Her Own Statement.

Detroit, Mich. — "I am glad to discover a remedy that relieves me from my suffering and pains. For two years I suffered bearing down pains and got all run down. I was under a nervous strain and could not sleep at night. I went to doctors here in the city but they did not do me any good.

"Seeing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised, I tried it. My health improved wonderfully and I am now quite well again. No woman suffering from female ills will regret it if she takes this medicine."—Mrs. JAMES G. LECLEAR, 336 Hunt St., Detroit, Mich.

Another Case.

Philadelphia, Pa. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is all you claim it to be. About two or three days before my periods I would get bad backaches, then pains in right and left sides, and my head would ache. I called the doctor and he said I had organic inflammation. I went to him for a while but did not get well so I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking two bottles I was relieved and finally my troubles left me. I married and have two little girls. I have had no return of the old troubles."—Mrs. CHAS. BOELL, 2650 S. Chadwick St., Phila., Pa.

Beauty of Natural, well formed Teeth is a personal possession that you always carry with you. If you have allowed neglect to disturb this beauty, modern dentistry will easily restore it. To improve mastication, is far more vital than the improvement of beauty, and while you improve both, you have real teeth and hinder the continuance of decay.

The thoroughness of my operations that patients enjoy, has won some of my best patrons.

Your intended call should be made today.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY OF PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON.

Thursday of this week President and Mrs. Wilson will celebrate the anniversary of their marriage and the Washington Post of Sunday says that notwithstanding its historic setting, probably will be as simple as the ceremony enacted 28 years ago in the Georgia home of the bride, the grandfather of the bride, assisted by the father of the bridegroom, officiating. Wilmingtonians feel a little more than usual interest in the marriage anniversary for when the marriage was celebrated President Wilson's father, Rev. J. R. Wilson, was pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city. The following from the Sunday Atlanta American with reference to the anniversary celebration, with reproduction of the account of the marriage, of the President and Mrs. Wilson will be of much interest here:

"While on the subject of the Wilsons, I have heard some quaint reminiscences of the wedding which is to be celebrated on the 26th at the White House. Since invitations to Atlantans have come from the President and his wife to the 28th anniversary of 'Axson-Wilson' nuptials, former friends of the Wilsons have indulged in recollections of the affair. One of the interesting facts which points vividly to the advancement (?) of journalism since that day—especially in social chronicles, is that the wedding of a future President and Mistress of the White House received exactly 12 lines in the 'home paper'. Not that the young people were insignificant socially, but that was Savannah's way. (Savannah hasn't come along as far as other cities in their devotion to society pages, even to date.) The wedding, 'write-up' from the Morning News, was furnished to me by a friend of the family. It ran thus:

"'Miss Ellie Lee Axson, daughter of the late Rev. Axson of this city, and Mr. Wilson, son of Rev. J. R. Wilson, of Wilmington, N. C., were married last evening, at the residence of Rev. I. S. K. Axson, pastor of the Independent Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, and the bride's grandfather. The nuptials were celebrated quietly, only the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties present.' Same old phrasemaking, at any rate. And note that 'Ellie Lee' was the former cognomen of Mrs. Wilson, since changed to Ellen. And Mr. Wilson is referred to in the chronicle of his arrival for the wedding as a 'prosperous wagon manufacturer of Atlanta.' The ministerial ancestry of both Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will explain the shock which may accompany the wide spreading of the information that Eleanor does the turkey trot."

Two days after their wedding anniversary the President and Mrs. Wilson will leave Washington for the Summer home they have selected at Cornish, N. H.

THE COTTON MARKET EASIER

The Opening Steady—Close Steady at Net Loss—Favorable Weather and Crop Reports Are in Evidence

New York, June 23.—The easier tendency noted in the cotton market toward the close of last week was in evidence again today, owing to continued realizing by old longs or scattered selling inspired by favorable weather and crop reports. The close was steady, but at a net loss of from 4 to 11 points.s

The market opened steady, at a decline of 4 to 6 points in response to lower cables, unfavorable European political news and reports of good weather in the South over Sunday. The initial prices reflected a setback of fully 30 points from the high level of last week and this break seemed to attract a good deal of covering by recent sellers as well as some fresh buying for long account. Demand failed to broaden on a rally of 5 or 6 points, however, while there were indications of continued realizing by old longs, under which the market soon turned easier, selling about 7 to 10 points net lower during the early afternoon. Subsequent fluctuations were more or less irregular, but the market met too much cotton on the rally to hold any improvement of consequence and closing prices were within two or three points of the lowest.

Recent Wall Street buyers were credited with being among the heaviest sellers during the day, while there was some further liquidation of Liverpool straddles and scattered Southern sellers. Trade interests were moderate buyers on a scale down, while there was considerable covering, which probably constituted the bulk of the demand. Rumors that preliminary returns to the National Ginners' Association, based on the official June bureau, pointed to a July condition report of 83.2 per cent., thus suggesting an improvement of about 4 per cent. in the crop outlook during the month, probably inspired part of the day's selling. Private cables from Liverpool attributed the decline there to a less active spot demand and continued continental realizing. Detailed weather reports showed some rain in the Eastern and Central portions of the belt, which was not considered unfavorable, following the recent dry, warm weather and very few crop complaints were received from the South.

Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 12:30; middling gulf, 12.55; sales, 2,430 bales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON MARKET

New Orleans, June 23.—Cotton was depressed today by good crop news and a favorable weather outlook, both of which stimulated short selling and also brought out considerable liquidation of long cotton. Bulls made no effort to hold the market and July had less influence than usual. The market was not active at any time and bears fed out their offerings very cautiously, evidently being afraid of the resumption of manipulation in the Summer months.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, June 23.—The tone of the primary market on finished cotton goods was quiet but steady. Gray goods of print cloth construction were irregular. Some well known lines of manipulated men's wear were opened for the next Spring season. Most of the prices on these goods remained unchanged, but in some instances the prices named were 5 per cent. higher. There was a fairly good demand for cheap, staple and fancy dress goods for Fall delivery. Raw silk advanced sharply on the Japan market.

THE FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, June 23.—Money on call, steady at 2@2½ per cent.; ruling rate, 2; closing bid, 1¾; offered at 2. Time loans, easier; sixty days, 3½@3¾ per cent.; ninety days, 3¾@4; six months, 4½@4¾. Prime mercantile paper, 6 per cent. Sterling exchange, firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.83 for 60-day bills, and 4.87 for demand. Commercial bills, 4.82¾. Bar silver, 58. Mexicaan dollars, 48; Government bonds, easy; railroad bonds, firm.

SHARP BREAK IN WHEAT PRICES

Chicago, June 23.—Assertions that the Nebraska harvest was showing the largest average yield per acre ever known east of the Rockies, caused a sharp break today in the price of wheat. STOCK MARKET OUTLOOK

President's Message on Currency Fails to Affect Conditions—Nervousness of the Shorts Increased —Opinions of Traders

New York, June 23.—It was the opinion of many traders today that Saturday's heavy selling of stocks had been overdone, and that there was no sound reason for such a severe decline as that which brought last week to a close. There was in consequence a tendency toward a recovery which was evident today as soon as the market opened. Attempts to cover revealed a scarcity of stocks. Nervousness of the shorts was increased by the belief that Saturday's break was due principally to a bear raid.

By noon the entire list was higher, with gains running up to 3 points in the case of Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific. In the latter half of the day trading grew dull and prices eased off gradually from the top.

Of influence in the improvement was the belief that the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling in the freight rate case on Saturday had reached too much emphasis as a bear factor. Although the commission refused to reopen the old freight rate case in the petition of the Eastern roads for a five per cent. advance, the inquiry to be made by the commission will enable the roads to present their case.

President Wilson's message to Congress on the currency question had no perceptible influence on the market. This was probably due to the fact that delivery of the message was preceded by publication of the Currency bill itself. It is the detailed plan set forth in the bill that Wall Street's chief interest lies.

Further slowing down in general business was indicated by the fortnightly report on idle freight cars. An increase of nearly 11,000 idle cars was shown.

Bonds were firm. Steel 5s showed some heaviness, falling to the recent low level. Total sales, par value, $1,050,000.

Panama 3s, coupon, declined ¼ on call.

Total sales were 270,000 shares, including American Tobacco, 100; A. C. L., 200; C. and O., 1,600; Lehigh Valley, 3,400; L. and N., 300; N. and W., 400; Republic Iron and Steel, 46,000; S. A. Will be Tried Friday.

Warrants have been issued charging LaFayette Brant, James Bennett, Carl Brown and Maggie Graham, all colored, with disorderly conduct. They will have a hearing before Justice Harriss Friday. These persons were in an automobile smash-up on June 1st, and two of them had to go to the hospital. One of them, Carl Brant, is still there. The car when wrecked was near the Seven-Mile Post on the Scott's Hill road and was overturned at a curve. It is supposed that the accident was caused by reckless driving.

Largest Fish of Season.

Mr. Theodore G. Empie, on a fishing trip last week, caught a 44-pound channel bass, which is the largest fish that has been caught this season in this vicinity. He also on the same trip caught 14 others of good size. Prior to Mr. Empie's capture Mr. William F. Tomz had the record for the heaviest bass of the season with a 41-pounder which he recently caught.

No Substitute Could Do This

No inferior substitute, but only the genuine Foley Kidney Pills could have rid J. F. Wallich, Bartlett, Neb., of his kidney trouble. He says: "I was bothered with backache and the pain would run up to the back of my head, and I had spells of dizziness. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they did the work and I am now entirely rid of kidney trouble. My father-in-law, now past 93 years, has taken them and they added years to his life."—Robt. R. Bellamy. DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Advice

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are frequently symptoms of kidney trouble, and a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys should be taken in time.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy to use. It has acted effectively in many cases in this vicinity.

Can Wilmington residents demand further proof than the following testimonials?

Mrs. J. H. Gardner, Rose Hill, N. C., says: "For several years I was greatly annoyed by kidney complaint and suffered greatly from a lame and aching back. Sometimes I was hardly able to get around to do my house work. I tried many remedies, but did not get relief. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and must say that I never used another remedy that helped me as quickly. I cheerfully recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

House, chiefly because no plan had been perfected to substitute this amount of currency, which the volume of business indicated ought not to be withdrawn.

It was pointed out that an elaborated machinery would be required to refund the two per cent bonds at the same time that the $500,000,000 issue of Federal reserve notes was being supervised by the Federal reserve board. The President indicated that he felt this was a great problem in itself and he has taken the view that for the present the subject of retiring the bonds should be treated independently.

Criticisms of the bill that have reached administration officials from bankers centers largely on the absence of any provision for the retirement of the bond secured currency. Representative Glass who conferred briefly with the President before the latter went to the capitol, is preparing to champion a provision for the retirement of the two per cent bonds by refunding them with three per cent.

The Address.

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Gentlemen of the Congress:

"It is under the compulsion of what seems to me a clear and imperative duty that I have a second time this session sought the privilege of addressing you in person. I know, of course, that the heated season of the year is upon us, that work in these chambers and in the committee rooms is likely to become a burden as the season lengthens, and that every consideration of personal convenience and personal comfort, perhaps, in the cases of some of us, considerations of personal health even, dictate an early conclusion of the deliberations of the session; but there are ocasions of public duty when these things which touch us privately seem very small; when the work to be done is so pressing and sa fraught with big consequence that we know that we are not at liberty to weight against it any point of personal sacrifice. We are now in the presence of such an occasion. It is absolutely imperative that we should give the business men of this country a banking and currency system by means of which they can make use of the freedom of enterprise and of individual initiative which we are about to bestow upon them.

We are about to set them free; we must not leave them without the tools of action when they are free. We are about to set them free by removing the trammels of the protective tariff. Ever since the Civil War they have waited for this emancipation and for the free opportunities it will bring with it. It has been reserved for us to give to to them. Some fell in love, indeed, with the slothful security of their dependence upon the government; some took advantage of the shelter of the nursery to set up a mimic mastery of their own within its walls. Now both the tonic and the discipline of liberty and maturity are to ensue. There will be some readjustments of purpose and point of view. There will follow a period of expansion and new enterprise, freshly conceived. It is for us to determine now whether it shall be rapid and facile and of easy accomplishment. This it can not be unless the resourceful businessmen who are to deal with the new circumstances are to have at hand and ready for use the instrumentalities and conveniences of free enterprise which independent men need when acting on their own initiative.

"It is not enough to strike the shackles from business. The duty of statesmanship is not negative merely. It is constructive also. We must show that we understand what business needs and that we know how to supply it. No man, however casual and superficial his observation of the conditions now prevailing in the country, can fail to see that one of the chief things business needs now, and will need increasingly as it gains in scope and vigor in the years immediately ahead of us, is the proper means by which readily to vitalize its credit, corporate and individual, and its originative brains. What will it profit us to be free if we are not to have the best and most accessible instrumentalities of commerce and enterprise? What will it profit us to be quit of one kind of monopoly if we are to remain in the grip of another and more effective kind? How are we to gain and keep the confidence of the business community unless we show that we know how both to aid and to protect it? What shall we say if we make fresh enterprise necessary and also make it very difficult by leaving all else except the tariff just as we found it? The tyrannies of business, big and little, lie within the field of credit. We know that. Shall we not act upon the knowledge? Do we not know how to act upon it? If a man can not make his assets available at pleasure, his assets of capacity and character and resource, what satisfaction is it to him to see opportunity beckoning to him on every hand, when others have the keys of credit in their pockets and treat them as all but their own private possession? It is perfectly clear that it is our duty to supply the new banking and currency system the country needs, and that it will immediately need it more than ever.

The only question is, When shall we supply it—now, or later, after the demands shall have become reproaches that we were so dull and so slow? Shall we hasten to change the tariff laws and then be laggards about making it possible and easy for the country to take advantage of the change? There can be only one answer to that question. We must act now, at whatever sacrifice to ourselves. It is a duty which the circumstances forbid us to postpone. I should be recreant to my deepest convictions of public obligation did I not press it upon you with solemn and urgent insistence.

"The principles upon which we should act are also clear. The country has sought and seen its path in this matter within the last few years—sees it more clearly now than it ever saw it before—much more clearly than when the last legislative proposals on the subject were made. We must have a currency, not rigid as now, but readily, elastically responsive to sound credit, the expanding and contracting credits of everyday transactions, the normal ebb and flow of personal and corporate dealings. Our banking laws must mobilize reserves; mut not permit the concentration anywhere in a few hands of the monetary resources of the country or their use for speculative purposes in such volume as to hinder or impede or stand in the way of other more legitimate, more fruitful uses. And the control of the system of banking and of issue which our new laws are to set up must be public, not private, must be vested in the government itself, so that the banks may be the instruments, not the masters, of business and of individual enterprise and initiative.

"The committees of the Congress to which legislation of this character is referred have devoted careful and dispassionate study to the means of accomplishing these objects. They have honored me by consulting me. They are ready to suggest action. I have come to you, as the head of the government and the responsible leader of the party in power, to urge action now, while there is time to serve the country deliberately and as we should, in a clear air of common counsel. I appeal to you with a deep conviction of duty. I believe that you share this conviction. I therefore appeal to you with confidence. I am at your service without reserve to play my part in any way you may call upon me to play it in this great enterprise of exigent reform which it will dignify and distinguish us to perform and discredit us to neglect."

DISCUSS SUNDAY SELLING

Ministers Report That No Ordinance Has Yet Been Drafted

At the regular weekly meeting of the Wilmington Ministerial Association yesterday morning report was made that the committee of ministers had held several conferences with ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, city attorney, with regard to a substitute ordinance covering Sunday selling to take the place of the one repealed two weeks ago, but so far no agreement had been reached as to the provisions of the new measure. It is unlikely that an ordinance will be drafted in time to receive the attention of the City Council at regular meeting tomorrow morning. The ministers who discussed the matter yesterday stated that in their opinion the law that was repealed came nearer covering the situation than anything in the way of a substitute that has been suggested. They would like mighty well to have the old ordinance reinstated. Council will hardly agree to this, however. It is expected that some time this week an ordinance will be drafted and it will be submitted to an early meeting of Council for action.

Arrested for Larceny.

Son Mills, alias Bango Mills, colored, was arrested last night by Constable Davis on a warrant sworn out by Frank Besant, colored, before Justice Harriss, charging him with the larceny of $13. He was placed in jail and will have a hearing today before Justice Harriss. Besant states that on Sunday, June 15th, Mills and another negro were at his home on Fourth and Dawson when he missed the money. He searched the other negro, but Mills refused to be searched. By investigation during the past week he found that Mills had spent about $13 at different places.

Indicted for Larceny of Net

Charles Tabb and Chris Reeves, two negroes, who were charged with the temporary larceny of a fishing net in the Cape Fear river, were tried before Justice Harriss yesterday afternoon. They were found guilty and judgment suspended upon payment of the costs. The alleged offense was committed near the fish factory on the Brunswick side of the river, and the indictment was made by Brunswick citizens.

Wan, Weary and Worn Out

If You Feel Fagged to a Finish and Utterly Used Up Here is Quick Relief.

S. S. S. Makes Your Blood Corpuscles Unite for Mutual Protection.

Half the people you meet complain of weary muscles, stagnant brain, jangled nerves, and a wonderful desire to lay down and just quit. Most of these people have been using nervines that spasmodically flare up the nerves only to die down again, as die they must. Avoid nerve stimulants. Bear in mind that this worn out feeling is due to poor blood, to bacteria in the water you drink; to the multiplying of destructive germs in the blood faster than they can be overcome by the white corpuscles; and to what is known as auto-toxemia, that condition where the venous or impure blood accumulates faster than it can be replaced by the red arterial blood.

The medicinal value of the components of S. S. S. is relatively just as vital and essential to well-balanced health as those of the grains, meats, fats and sugars of our food.

If you feel played out go to any drug store and ask for a bottle of S. S. S., Swift's Sure Specific. Here is a remedy that gets at work in a twinkling; it just naturally rushes right into your blood, scatters germs right and left, up and down and sideways.

You feel better at once, not from a stimulant, not from the action of drugs, but from the rational effect of a natural medicine just as active and just as timely as to a man who has been lost in the mountains, is about starved and comes across a settler just cooking a savory meal of good honest beef. Do not neglect to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. It will make you feel better in just a few minutes. It is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg. Atlanta, Ga. Send for their free book telling of the many strange conditions that afflict the human family by reason of impoverished blood.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY

INCREASE WEIGHT QUICKLY

Simple Way for the Thin and Pale to be Plump and Rosy.

Samose can hardly be termed a medicine, it is in reality a flesh-forming food. Taken before or after meals, it mingles with the food you eat, enables it to assimilate and readily digest, so as to make rich blood and pleasing plumpness.

After Samose has been used a week or ten days a noticeable gain in weight is seen. The sallow complexion will become rosy, the sunken cheeks will have a ruddy glow, the eyes will be bright, the breath sweet and the step elastic.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.'s customers have told them of the remarkable results following the use of Samose, the great flesh-forming food, and they are so thoroughly convinced of its reliability that they are selling it under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. You who are thin and in poor health cannot afford to let another day pass without getting a 50c box of Samose on those terms.

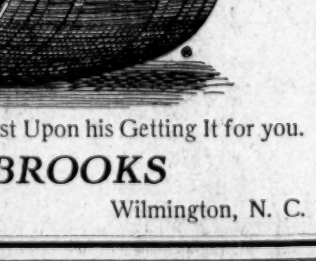
When you get ready to fish, naturally your mind turns to where you should go to get good Tackle of the Right Kind.



We've got the good Tackle, and furthermore, if you want to "line up" on what to use—why just ask Tomz. Willie Tomz—or Willie, as he is familiarly known by the sporting fraternity, is an encyclopedia on the art of fishing—what to fish with and where to go, and when! Because he knows what he is talking about.
